St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually. Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Thank you for all your support!

ROSARY

Monday-Saturday after 8am Mass in the Chapel.

Dear Parishioners,

Keep your eyes open, for you know not the day or the hour. MT 25:13

This past week we celebrated two beautiful feasts; All Saints and All Souls. Both of these feast days tie closely to our readings and to our ending of the Liturgical Year. These next few weeks before the first Sunday of Advent, the readings will be speak about the end of days. There will be a call to prepare ourselves for the Day of the Lord. The Gospel today exhorts us to stay awake and keep our eyes open "for we know not the time or the hour." The foolish virgins did not watch the oil in their lamps and when the bridegroom came they were not prepared. The wise ones made sure they had more than enough oil to keep the lamps burning. The Solemnity of All Saints commemorates, all those men and woman who spent their lives prepared for the coming of the Lord. They lived lives of holiness conscious of the presence of Jesus in their daily lives. When we think of the saints many of our favorites come to mind, St. Francis, St. Patrick, St. Anthony. We are blessed to have new saints Blessed Teresa of Calcutta and Blessed John Paul II. The saints are so important in the life of the Church, they are our heroes, the ones we look to not only as "good" people, but more importantly as Christians to emulate. We need these heroes more then ever in our world. Maybe there are even some saints in your family, since a saint is one who lives with God in heaven. The Feast of All Souls are the ones who may have lead good Christian lives yet still need our prayers to assist them on the journey to heaven. While they might not have been the "wise ones" they might also not fit into the category of the "unwise." So the Church prays for them and offers Masses for the repose of their souls. How wonderful our prayer is for those in purgatory! We can be of great assistance to them as they are "purged" of any weakness and failings. So great is the mercy of God that He wants no one to be separated from Him.

The Gospel poses a question for each of us. Are we prepared? Are there areas of our lives that are not fully in line with what Jesus asks of us? How open are we to God's will and the prompting of the Holy Spirit? Remember anger, hatred, stubbornness are never the will of God for us. The time of the Lord comes upon like a thief in the night...don't waste any more time!

In Jesus,
Fr. Bob

Renewing and Restoring the House of God

Vol. 1

November 5th & 6th, 2011

Building Our Future Begins Today!

Our capital campaign, "Restoring and Renewing the House of God" is now underway, and we are excited about the opportunity for everyone in our parish family to participate in this very important event. Throughout the campaign we will keep you posted on progress toward our goal of raising $1 million. In coming weeks we plan to use this space to publish the names of families who have contributed to the effort. Our listing will include only names (no pledge amounts). We, of course, will honor the wishes of those who prefer to remain anonymous. We would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to those families who have already made a pledge. Should there be any discrepancies or questions about this listing please contact the parish office at (516) 676-0676.

Lord, I Love the House in which you dwell. (Psalm 26:8)

The High School Youth Group will be meeting this Sunday from 6-8pm in the youth center. All are welcome!

The Youth Group Music Ministry will be meeting this Sunday from 5-6pm in the youth center to begin preparations for performing at the Midnight Christmas Mass. All 8-12 grade singers and instrumentalists are encouraged to attend!

The next 8th Grade Youth Group will be on November 18th from 6-8pm in the youth center. All are invited!

For an updated schedule of youth group events please join our Facebook page 'St. Boniface Martyr Youth Group' or email the youth minister, Chris, at stbonym@gmail.com.
