St. Vincent de Paul Society

The good news of this Gospel is that all we need do is let God tend us and bring us to produce good fruit. All we need do is be faithful; God will take care of the rest.

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned.

Thank you for all your support!

Furniture and financial donations are always welcome.

You are too! Come join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and be a communal part of your parish.

Call 822-3132.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED

Please pray for the members of our parish who have entered into eternal life.

Placement of names on the sick list must be requested by an immediate family member through Fr. Bob. Names will be announced at weekend Masses for 3 weeks and then listed in the bulletin only.

Dear Parishioners,

These next few weeks I would like continue our discussion dealing with the changes in the Roman Missal. As I mentioned last week, the changes will begin the first Sunday of Advent, November 27th, 2011.

Words are what we use to convey a message to others. The clearer and more concise our language is the easier it is to convey that message. The words of some of the prayers will be changed to reflect not only a deeper theological understanding, but also a change in the focus of language. We have different modes of speech that reflect the various situations we find ourselves. A business letter would have a different style from a note to a friend. If you have ever seen a text messages our young people use you might think they are speaking a different language. Their language is very informal and they often use letters that might refer to phrases. While each do have a place we have to remember that the language of Ritual is meant to be more formal. This formal language should set the tone for what the Ritual is meant to express. Liturgical language should prepare us to encounter the Triune God. This language of worship should always raise us to encounter the transcendence. Language of Ritual should not be linear but rather vertical (a movement upwards).

THE GREETING

With that in mind we come to the first of the changes in the Mass. The priest presently greets the gathered assembly with the phrase The Lord be with you, which we use at three other pivotal moments in the Liturgy (at the Gospel, the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer and the final blessing that will send us forth). We of course have returned the greeting with And also with you. While this is fine, it doesn't put forth the true meaning of what is intended. The new response will be And with your Spirit. This reflects a deeper spiritual meaning. As the priest gathers the people for prayer, our hope is that the Holy Spirit who called him to Holy Orders and is present as he takes on the role of the "Persona Christi" (the person of Christ), will now empower him to truly act in the person of Jesus. When we are greeted with "The Lord be with you," the response is not just and "and you too!" but a prayer that the power of the Holy Spirit be unleashed. St Paul often prays that the Holy Spirit be animated in the believers. So not only is this translation closer to the Latin but also reflects what is said throughout the world. THE LORD BE WITH YOU...AND WITH YOUR SPIRIT will now be the proper greeting and response.

PENITENTIAL ACT

You will notice that it is not longer called the Penitential Rite, but Act. The words we use are an admission that we often fail in our responsibilities to act as Disciples of Jesus. It is through God's grace and mercy that we are forgiven. We utter the words that acknowledge our guilt and seek the forgiveness of God. While this Act DOES NOT replace the Sacrament of Reconciliation and we need to go to confession when we sin in order to worthily receive the Eucharist, it does bring us to an understanding of true contrition that allows us to acknowledge the awesomeness of God. The Confiteor (I confess...) will add the phrase "Through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault." Some of you who remember the old Liturgy will recall this phrase. Also using the theological number of three we see echoed in the Holy, Holy, Holy and the invocation of the Lord Have Mercy. Throughout the Scriptures, especially with David, the admission of guilt is repeated. This is supposed to help us remember that we need God's grace to continue the journey because we DO NOT and CANNOT do it on our own. I think is a great humble reminder for many of us, as we come to Mass, who erroneously believe that we create the power to do all things.

THE GLORIA

The Gloria is the great hymn of Praise to the Holy Trinity. In the first part of the Gloria we will see a change that reflects more closely the song of the Angels at the Birth of the Savior as found in St. Luke. "Glory to God in the Highest and on earth peace to people of good will." We will see other changes that become a direct translation of Sacred Scripture so that our Liturgy becomes a mirror of the Word. The peace of God is offered especially to those who seek Him and wish to do His will. So to those who seek goodness or "good will," God will grant His peace. This hymn which is a song of praise now enters into a build up of praise as we say, "We praise You, we bless You, we adore You, we glorify You, we give You thanks for your great glory." It seems we cannot stop praising and uttering words that express the greatness of God. St Paul tells us to sing words of praise to God to help raise us to His wondrous presence.

In Jesus,
Fr. Bob
