St. Vincent de Paul Society

Jesus was born during the night of the year when darkness is the longest. The Savior of the world comes for the people in dark places. The real, lasting, and deep joy is that the Light shines there. That is why we can say to each other, "Merry Christmas!"

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring the light of Jesus into the dark places of the poor. Thanks for helping those in need to be able to say "Merry Christmas!"

Thank you for all your support!

Furniture and financial donations are always welcome.

You are too!

Come join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and be a communal part of your parish. Call 822-3132.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR DECEASED

Please pray for our parishioners who have entered into eternal life.

Placement of names on the sick list must be requested by an immediate family member through Fr. Bob. Names will be announced at weekend Masses for 3 weeks; then listed in the bulletin only.

ROSARY

Monday-Saturday after 8am Mass in the Chapel.

Dear Parishioners,

"He will stand and feed His Flock." Mi 5:3

This is one of my favorite lines in Sacred Scripture. It is the line I had placed on the card commemorating my installation as pastor. In the Old Testament, the Prophet Micah offers the people of Israel hope in their time of need. This hope is envisioned in the coming of the Messiah. This Savior will be one who shepherds the people of Israel. He will shepherd not as others have for their own gain or in their own words but as the scripture tells us "He will feed His flock with the power of the Lord." The Messiah will be the One who speaks and act in the very name of God. As one who comes in God's name He will bear with Himself great peace. This peace comes when those who hear His words listen and obey. St. Paul goes on to tell us that those who follow Him do more than simply offer sacrifices or obey the law but rather to embrace the will of God. When we have willingly taken on obedience to God then His peace can be a reality in our lives.

This is seen in the beautiful recounting of the Visitation. Here is Our Lady who just encountered an Angel with a message...and has forever enshrined for us the living out of obedience to the will of God...now teaches us again. In Her own condition and with all She Herself has to deal with, Mary doesn't remain self absorbed. Her vision is one that "Feeds the Flock" of those in need. Her kinswoman, Elizabeth, is also pregnant and advanced in age. So Mary puts aside Her own needs and goes to minister and support Her cousin. What a lesson Mary teaches us in this Advent Season. With all the materialism, consumerism and mind set that calls us to fulfill our own needs this story stand in stark contrast to much of what this season has become in our world. Mary reminds us that when we choose live in obedience to God, it opens our hearts to live out that love by how we love one another. Like Mary our Mother, we should be open to the Spirit of God so that like Her, our lives may be a song sung to the glory of God. Look to Her in these last few days before Christmas and learn from Her "Yes" to God. This is surely one of the steps to find that peace that the prophet Micah promised.

We still need help in some of the Christmas Masses, especially ushers and Extraordinary Ministers. If you have not already done so, please consider assisting, even if it is not the Mass you had hoped to attend. Please see the schedule for Christmas Masses and why not invite someone to Mass with you who has been away from the Church or the parish? What a great Christmas gift you can be to them...and what a blessing it would be for you.

In this season of thanks I want to express my deep gratitude to the people of St. Boniface Martyr. So many give so freely of themselves to make this the wonderful parish that it is. Those who work to deepen the spirituality, the many who work in faith formation; the prayerful and joyful Liturgies; those who work behind the scenes to beautify our complex; the social parties that bring us together; those involved in fundraising and the overwhelming generosity of our parishioners and of course our wonderful parish staff who each day help me to serve YOU. To all thank you for making the ministry of being your pastor the joy that it is for me.

On behalf of myself, Fr. Azubike and the entire Parish Staff here at St. Boniface Martyr, we wish you and all your family a joyous and blessed Christmas.

In Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Bob

DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

December 8, 2012
Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

Dear Faithful Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Christ is born, sing glory! Christ has descended from heaven, go out to meet Him! Christ is on earth; lift yourselves up! Sing to the Lord, all the Earth for He Who belongs to heaven is now on earth! Christ has become flesh, so tremble and rejoice; tremble because of sin and rejoice because of hope: Christ is born of the Virgin!

These beautiful words of the great Saint Gregory Nazianzen (329-389) can be heard across our world and around the globe this Christmas. Christ is born again this year in our hearts as He was born in the flesh of the Virgin Mary two thousand years ago in Bethlehem. Like the shepherds, we welcome Him into our hearts and into our lives. We know His coming changes all of humanity. We pray that His love will constantly increase in us so that we might belong more deeply to Him and to His Church and thus to one another. Bethlehem has reopened Eden and in the grotto of Bethlehem we regain the goods of Paradise. (Romanos the Melodist c. 540)

In this Year of Faith, Christmas is the great feast when we can renew our faith in God's love made manifest in the birth of His Son, Jesus the Christ. This is the feast that opens our eyes to the concrete expression of divine love now become an intimate part of the life of every man and woman who believes in the heart and professes with one's lips that Jesus, this Child, Jesus, is the Son of God. He is Lord and Savior.

In this Year of Faith, we all recently have been tried through the devastation caused by Hurricane Sandy. So many have lost homes. So many have had to struggle. So many need help. And so many of you have been generous, giving, caring and loving toward our brothers and sisters in need. I love those words of Blessed John Paul II: we do not know why God allows suffering but we do know that suffering releases love.

Love, God's love, was released in superabundance in a stable in Bethlehem. That love has never ceased to flood our hearts, strengthen our families, encourage the young and give consolation to the elderly. And the more we adore the Son of God born of the Virgin Mary, the more we too are cooperators in spreading God's love from that stable into our parishes, our communities and all the world.

With you I pray that this Christmas will bring us joy and happiness. Even more I pray Christmas will bring peace especially to the Middle East. And I pray that you and I who welcome Jesus into our hearts may be His instruments to offer His love and His gift of peace to all the world.

Joyful and blessed Christmas to one and all!

+William Murphy

Bishop of Rockville Centre

Whose House is This?

Whose house is the church building, God's or ours? The answer is yes! Both! Our church is God's house because it is the house of the body of Christ, the church. We cannot contain God. We cannot imprison God in some structure made of human hands. But when we who are made holy by baptism, confirmation and eucharist gather together, then God chooses to live here in this place, among us. When we who are God's church gather together, with our bishop, or his delegate our priest and our deacon, around our book (on its stand), at our font (and its water), and especially around the Lord's altar (which is a dining table set in the shadow of the cross), God chooses to dwell here, too.

The God who wove the night time sky and buttoned it with stars, the God for whom the Rocky Mountains are naught but a bit of mud squished between divine toes, and for whom the oceans are but puddles—this God does not need a temple. But the people whom this God loves from before time began do need a place to gather, and to remember in sacred rites that the church is made of flesh and blood before it is made of brick and board. Our church building is that place! So it should be simply beautiful, and we should care lovingly for it. It isn't any old meeting hall. It isn't any old living room. It isn't a museum or a classroom, either. It is a holy place, a holy land right here in our neighborhood where the body of Christ is joined, where the voice of Christ rings out, where the sacrifice of Christ is offered and shared.

It is good to show reverence in and to the church building. But reverence is not ignoring one's neighbor as a distraction. Reverence is the wonder that we experience and the love that we show when we realize that each one of those here gathered around the Lord's altar is a living stone that builds a spiritual house, and it is here that God truly lives among us.
