New IRA Charitable Rollover Opportunity

The IRA charitable rollover was revived in the American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012.

What's called a rollover is actually a "qualified charitable distribution" that can be made to our Parish. Here's how to do it: if you are at least 70.5 years old the date you make your gift; if your IRA is a traditional or Roth; if you don't exceed your personal maximum of $100,000 per year in qualified charitable distributions.

You will not have to report your distribution as income. It will be free of federal and New York State income tax and it will count toward your required minimum distribution (RMD).

The best way for you to start is with your IRA custodian. Tell them you want to make a "qualified charitable distribution." In most cases you will only have to fill out a simple form.

Your gift must go directly from your IRA to the Parish. If you receive the money first then you'll be taxed on it like any other distribution. Example: Mrs. Connors, age 76, has $125,000 in a traditional IRA and would like to contribute $5,000 to our Parish. Upon hearing of the Charitable IRA Rollover opportunity, she directs the custodian of her IRA to transfer this amount not later than December 31, 2013 directly to the Parish as a 2013 gift. She will not be subject to income tax on her $5,000 qualified charitable distribution.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Lent 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

On February 13th, the Church entered once again into the forty days of Lent. From Ash Wednesday until the Mass of the Lord's Supper, we will follow the ancient and more recent customs of our Church, journeying with Christ toward Easter. In this Year of Faith, this Lent has an added urgency because the faith that sets us free is often ignored, ridiculed, denied and even attacked. Our response must always be to pray to God to give us the strength "to increase our faith" and so become ever more faithful witnesses to God's love and His presence in a world that is becoming ever more indifferent to Him and His Son's message of salvation.

The Bishops of the United States this past November issued an Exhortation on the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation, God's Gift of Forgiveness, which can be found at www.usccb.org as well as on our diocesan website, www.drvc.org. It is brief and comes from our hearts. I make that message mine to you at the beginning of this Lent.

When the Risen Christ greets the apostles in the upper room saying Peace be with You, He gives them the extraordinary command: Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them. As He did for them, He tells us bishops and priests to do for you in His name. And that is exactly what is offered to each and every one of us in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. The Church sees confession as so important that she requires that every Catholic go to Confession at least once a year. It is important for us to hear this again today when too many have let the practice of Confession fall out of their lives. In this Year of Faith and in this time, when Pope Benedict calls us to participate in a New Evangelization of our lives, our Church and our society, he also tells us that The New Evangelization...begins in the confessional.

In our Diocese we have long had the grace-filled practice of dedicating the Monday of Holy Week to making priests available in the confessionals of every parish from 3:00PM to 9:00PM. Our neighbors in Brooklyn and New York now join us in this. Some years ago I wrote a letter to all of you on the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. I urged our priests to offer the sacrament more often than Saturdays before the Vigil Mass and as frequently as the priest could so that the sacrament would be more available for us all. I repeat that now with an urgent prayer to God that all of us, the faithful of this Diocese, experience the healing and freeing merciful life of God through this supreme sacrament of forgiveness and renewal of life.

Pope Benedict reminds us that faith and the Christian life is not a theory or a lofty idea, it is an encounter with a person Who gives life a new horizon and a decisive dimension. This Lent I pray that, whatever our Lenten works of prayer and fasting and works of charity are, they might be purified and made ever more beautiful from hearts cleansed by the grace of God's merciful love in the sacrament of forgiveness, His saving love poured forth into the world through the death and resurrection of His Son.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Bishop of Rockville Centre

St. Vincent de Paul Annual Report

The Parish Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society has submitted its 2012 Annual Report to Fr. Bob. The Report reflects the activities of the 22 volunteers from our parish conference, and is required by the Rules of the Society for the fiscal year. It has been an active and rewarding time for our parish Vincentians. Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless. This is the simple, direct mandate by Christ to all followers. The reality is, for most of us, opportunities to follow the mandate are rare. Most people rarely personally encounter the hungry, naked or homeless.

The members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society are privileged to meet with the poor, face-to-face, in their homes, to demonstrate the love of Christ for His poor, and offer spiritual and material relief to them and their families in home visits on a regular basis. The Annual Report summarizes, in statistical format, the work of those volunteers, but hardly conveys their dedication to our neighbors in need. Over the past year, the parish Vincentians made 106 visitations to the homes of the neighbors in need and provided help to 398 people in need of assistance. The Vincentians performed approximately 2,600 hours in service to these neighbors during the fiscal year.

At the heart of the Vincentian ministry is the “home visit” by pairs of Vincentians, not as invasive bureaucrats, but rather caring representatives of Christ’s love, through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. There is reciprocity, mutuality, in the service of Vincentians through the home visit that transforms the help from something that may have been humiliating into something that is honorable.

The Society initially was started at St. Boniface when parishioners formed a Conference in 1937. The “home visit,” unique to the ministry and character of the Society, provides an opportunity for the poor and deprived to communicate their individual needs with dignity in the comfort of their homes, and for the Vincentian visitors to analyze and respond to those identified needs. Sometimes the most appreciated benefit conveyed by the Vincentians is the fact that they cared enough to visit the deprived and forgotten, regardless of race or religious belief.

During the past year, Vincentians in the Parish Conference expended $21,823.00 for our neighbors. Typically, these disbursements were to pay rent, food vouchers, fuel, utilities, clothing, furniture, prescriptions, transportation, etc. These payments were as varied and numerous as the individuals served. The sources of income for the local ministry were also quite varied. The principal source of financial support is generous benefactors in the parish who share Christ’s love of the poor with our Vincentians. Their generosity makes them partners with the Vincentians in feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and sheltering the homeless. On behalf of the poor, thank you! Our gratitude to our benefactors in their support for St. Vincent de Paul is boundless. At the request of our Conference, Fr. Bob recently celebrated a Mass of Thanksgiving, attended by Conference members and benefactors. The balance of income to the Conference, $4,164.00, came from Conference members, poor boxes, and parish collections.

The Conference is particularly grateful for the constant interest and encouragement of the pastor of St. Boniface. Notwithstanding the many demands of his time, he has commended the work of the Conference, attended Conference meetings, and offered words of support, both privately and publicly, in our service of feeding, clothing and sheltering the poor. Thank you, Father Bob.

Parishioners and others interested in financially supporting this work are encouraged to use the poor boxes at the doors of the Church for cash or check donations. Checks may also be made out to St. Boniface Martyr Conference of St. Vincent de Paul and left at the Parish Center or mailed to the Conference at the Parish Center, 145 Glen Avenue, Sea Cliff, NY 11579. St. Vincent de Paul envelopes for that purpose are available throughout the church. The Parish Conference is a charitable organization under Sec. 501(c) (3) of the IRC. Donations are tax deductible.

The members of the Conference here at St. Boniface are extremely pleased to share the news that two new conferences have been established in our neighboring parishes of St. Rocco’s in Glen Cove and St. Gertrude’s in Bayville. As with the conference at St. Patrick’s in Glen Cove, your Conference at St. Boniface Martyr has provided significant support and mentoring in order to assist in the start of neighboring conferences, all in the name of Christ.

Deo Gratias.

ST. BONIFACE MARTYR YOUTH GROUP

The Youth Group participated in a Midnight Run on February 16th in New York City. Midnight Run is an organization established to connect youth groups to the homeless of New York. Our Youth Group collected new and gently used clothing, toiletries and food from the parish and delivered the supplies in person to those in need. This type of profound experience is not only an opportunity for the youth, but for the parish as a whole to come together and be hands of Christ to those most in need. Thank you for your donations that helped make this year's Midnight Run a success!

For an updated schedule of youth group events please join our Facebook page 'St. Boniface Martyr Youth Group' or email the youth minister, Chris at stbonym@gmail.com.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel, Jesus challenges us by saying "Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap..." When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts and into our lives. Thank you for all your support! Furniture and financial donations are always welcome. You are too! Come join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and be a communal part of your parish. Call 822-3132.
