Monday-Saturday after 8am Mass in the Chapel.

Dear Parishioners,

"Father I have sinned against God and you." LK 15:21

The word "prodigal" means "waster or squander", one who wastes gifts and resources. The title tells how the son "squandered his money on dissolute living." It is interesting and poignant that the father allows his younger son to leave. Sometimes the worst thing God can do is to give us what we want--to show us that our desires can't always bring satisfaction. The prodigal son got what he wanted, but lost what he had. When we rebel against God's will He sometimes says, "All right, YOUR will be done! See how you like it! God's most severe punishment may be to give us what we want. The lost son lusted for freedom without restraints and ended up enslaving himself. When his money ran out, his so-called friends deserted him--they were only friends of his wealth. He learned the hard way that we can't enjoy the things money can buy if we ignore the things money cannot buy. Sin promises freedom but it only brings slavery...it promises success, but it only brings failure...it promises life, but brings death.

When he gets to the point where he has nothing left — money, friends, food, shelter or dignity, the prodigal son complains about no one but himself. He speaks of no unworthiness but his own. He doesn't blame his plight on his former evil companions. He admits his eagerness to leave the protection of his home and offers no excuses to cover his guilt or justify his waywardness. It is in this "mature" realization that repentance and eventual change of life can occur. Guilt and shame are painful to face, yet we desperately need to see ourselves for what we are. Only then we can respond to God's mercy. The returned son attempts to deliver his prepared speech to his father. He admits he has sinned against "heaven", too shamed to even speak the name of God. He begins, but doesn't get to finish, for his father calls to the servants to bring out the best robe--to cover the son's poverty and shame; a ring--as a seal and symbol of his identity as a member of the household; and shoes--so that he can now walk in a new way...also, shoes were not worn by servants! The father does not humiliate his son, but welcomes him into all the privileges of the family and treats him with honor.

Sometimes we think we need to clean ourselves up before we come to Jesus. All we need is to come home...and the Father will give His best even though we've sinned. If you're afraid to come to Jesus; if you're ashamed of your past; if all you have to offer your heart to Jesus, then do it!. Go to confession, then remember the loving father of the prodigal--He is in fact, the Father of us all, and is ready to run to us with open arms. What a beautiful image...what a beautiful God!

Our Midnight Run trip with the Youth Group was a moving experience. Though we weren't able to help as many people as we would have liked to, we were where Jesus wanted us and doing His will and that in the end is what it is all about. I want to thank you, the people of St Boniface Martyr for your generosity and prayers. We really felt the joy of representing the parish in this wondrous mission. A special thank you to all the Youth Group members who worked for weeks preparing, for those who were able to bring the love of Jesus to all we met that night and to the parents/chaperones whose presence was a blessing. I want to add deep words of gratitude and thanks to our Youth Minister, Chris Mandato, for the wonderful leadership and prayerfulness he brought to the entire endeavor.

As you know, Josie Hart will be leaving the parish very soon. She has been the face of the 10:15 am Mass' hospitality and fellowship. She will be greatly missed but I pray that this next phase of her life in California will bring her joy. In light of that I ask that you consider volunteering your time to assist in the fellowship preparation. Please sign up in the back of church or call the Parish Center and leave your name and number.

Yours in our Crucified Lord,
Fr. Bob

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

August 1, 2013 is the deadline for certain organizations in the Diocese such as Catholic Charities and Catholic Health Services of Long Island to comply with the HHS mandate that they provide free artificial contraception and abortifacient medications as part of their compliance with the Affordable Care Act. Without being specific, indications from the Obama Administration are that they will no longer listen to our claims or those who share our religious and conscience convictions. The latest Administration pronouncements were a disappointment. After a week of analyzing this latest proposal from the Administration, Cardinal Timothy Dolan of New York, President of the US Conference of Catholic Bishops, expressed our willingness to continue to try to convince the government that the objectively inadequate "accommodation" from the HHS continues to fall far short of the mark.

To me, the major problem is in the very word the Administration uses: accommodation. The state is not the giver of rights, especially religious freedom. We as citizens possess the right to religious freedom without government pronouncement and, in truth, the Administration cannot "accommodate" what is already ours. We should not be treated as if we are second class citizens because we disagree with the government's new and arbitrary insistence that all of us have to follow their prescriptions despite our religious beliefs and our right to freedom of conscience. Those rights are God-given, not state-granted. Every person and every religious institution already has from God what is guaranteed in our Constitution and Bill of Rights: freedom of religion and of conscience.

Now in the middle of Lent I write to you to ask you first of all to pray that God will protect us and our God-given rights as persons and as a Church. Second, I invite you to stay informed and be ready to respond to our calls for help as needed.

Keep your eye on the website of the US Bishops www.usccb.org as well as our news website www.licatholic.org to keep up-to-date and find concrete ways for concerted action. To get involved, please consider joining grass roots advocacy groups forming in parishes across the Diocese, such as Catholics for Freedom of Religion www.catholicsforfreedomofreligion.com. I encourage you to consider participation in such a group. Let our Senators and your Congressperson know that you and I have not lost interest. Tell them we are resolute in insisting on this most basic freedom, the freedom of religious belief and the protection of conscience. To contact your US Senators and Representatives, go to the website of the National Committee for a Human Life Amendment www.nchla.org. Send an email to your Representatives to demand the overturning of the HHS mandate. Plans are also being made for the Second Fortnight for Freedom that will take place this summer. More details about the Fortnight will be forthcoming.

Continue to pray that what is ours by right will be recognized and honored for the good of all. And continue to stand together. Your witness is needed now more than ever.

Devotedly yours in Christ,
 ✠ William Murphy
 Bishop of Rockville Centre

Hospital Eucharistic Ministry

For those wishing to give communion to the sick at Glen Cove Hospital, a special half-day training session at another time and place is required. "It is one of the most rewarding experiences I've ever had," reports Eucharistic Minister, Maureen Maddock, who prepares the schedule. "The appreciation of receiving communion in the hospital is overwhelming for many and very gratifying for me. The short extra training session was well worth it. We need more ministers for possible once-a-month to once a week coverage at the hospital." If you can do this important work, please contact Fr. Bob.
