ANNOUNCEMENT OF ELECTION OF NEW HOLY FATHER

Habemus Papam Pope Francis I

Bishop William Murphy and the Roman Catholic Church of Rockville Centre join the universal Church in rejoicing in the selection of Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio of Buenos Aires as Pope. We give thanks to God for the gift of Pope Francis I, the 266th successor of Saint Peter, the Vicar of Christ on earth. We join the Church in prayer for our new Holy Father as he begins his new ministry. Bishop Murphy asks all the faithful of the Diocese to join him and his brother bishops of this local Church in offering prayers of thanksgiving to the Lord for our new Holy Father. At the Cathedral of Saint Agnes and in all the other parishes of the Diocese, Bishop Murphy and his brother priests will celebrate Masses of Thanksgiving in union with the Pope when he offers Mass at Saint Peter's Basilica to mark the beginning of his pastoral ministry as Bishop of Rome, Successor of Saint Peter, Vicar of Christ and Universal Shepherd of the Catholic Church.

ROSARY

Monday-Saturday after 8am Mass in the Chapel.

Dear Parishioners,

"Let the one without sin cast the first stone" Jn 8:8

Today's Gospel on the Fifth Sunday of Lent, Jesus directs our attention to two places. First, He addresses the accusers in their anger and desire for vengeance. In simple yet compassionate language, He asks that the one who thinks himself perfect and without any sin be the first to carry out the prescribed punishment. Jesus doesn't say that the sin is not wrong or against the law of God, but He challenges them to look at their own lives. In that introspection, Jesus wishes them to see in the failings of that woman, a reflection of their own lives and to reflect on the times they themselves have sinned. In seeing or remembering their personal sins, they are to realize that to sin is part of the human experience. And if common to each person, then the question becomes to a rational person...what is the response when we encounter another sinner?

The second direction our minds must turn to is Jesus' treatment of the woman caught in adultery. When all around her were quick to condemn and seek out a vengeance, this woman, scared and alone, now encounters probably what she never could have imagined...a voice of compassion. Jesus doesn't minimize her sin, but rather offers her a hope for a new life. That hope is based on a willingness to embrace a new life. In those word of Jesus "neither do I condemn you, go and avoid this sin" must have been joy to her ears. It is a challenge to live a new life and to realize that the God we worship in Jesus is not one who wishes us to die in our sins, but rather to live in the freedom that Jesus came to offer us. By the words of Jesus, she has been given a second chance to live faithfully in God.

So what does this mean for us? Very simply, be careful how we judge the sins and failings of others. Because if we look closely at our own lives we realize that we too fall short of the expectations that God has for us. As much as God is merciful to us so we must in turn share that compassion with the sinner in our midst.

We also learn that God what so much to forgive our sins so that they do not weigh heavy upon our hearts. But for that to happen we must be willing to acknowledge our sins and to hear the voice of Jesus as He forgives them. What better way then to take advantage of the Sacrament of Reconciliation? Do not be afraid...come to the Sacrament and hear and feel the healing that Jesus so much wants to offer to you. Do not let pride or FEAR keep you from this wondrous Sacrament.

I encourage you to attend the St Patrick's Day parade in Glen Cove. This wonderful Catholic tradition honors the patron Saint of Ireland. I congratulate our own parishioner Daniel Lane who is this years Grand Marshall. The parade steps off at 1pm. I will be marching as the Chaplain of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. I hope to see you all there and Happy St. Patrick's and St. Joseph's Day to you all.

In Jesus the Crucified Lord,
Fr. Bob

Hospital Eucharistic Ministry

For those wishing to give communion to the sick at Glen Cove Hospital, a special half-day training session at another time and place is required. "It is one of the most rewarding experiences I've ever had," reports Eucharistic Minister, Maureen Maddock, who prepares the schedule. "The appreciation of receiving communion in the hospital is overwhelming for many and very gratifying for me. The short extra training session was well worth it. We need more ministers for possible once-a-month to once a week coverage at the hospital."

If you can do this important work, please contact Fr. Bob.
