St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice which brings new life to others.

In the month of March, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to assist families in need celebrate the joy of Easter by providing food, and money for utility and rent bills.

Thank you for all your support!

Furniture and financial donations are always welcome. You are too! Come join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and become a communal part of your parish. Call 822-3132.

ROSARY

Monday-Saturday after 8am Mass in the Chapel.

Dear Parishioners,

"Christ is Risen...He is Risen indeed!"

For our Eastern Rite Catholics and for the Orthodox this is greeting they offer to each other during the Easter Season. What a wonderful way to greet other believers...to proclaim the Resurrection of Jesus. These are my favorite days of the Church. Easter is such a reminder of the new Life Jesus promises. One of the things I love is that the world around us usually proclaims that New Life. If we look around in our gardens we can see the crocuses and daffodils springing forth from the earth. The world that looked so dead is now showing signs of spring life.

I hope that these days of celebration don't not pass us by without reflecting on the meaning of Easter. If we truly believe that the Jesus who died on the Cross was raised on Easter then we have to ask ourselves "what does it mean for our lives?"

Easter is not just a celebration of spring or even of chocolate (as much as I love chocolate), it is the promise of Jesus that even if we die to this life we have the promise of Life to come. But Eternal Life is a free gift that must be freely accepted on our part. In being accepted it requires from us a response TO God. That response is a turning from sin in our own lives and embracing God's vision for our lives. Living in truth the Gospel, sowing the seeds of the love of Jesus and to live each day knowing how much we ARE loved. Let us reflect and ponder who Jesus is for us and how His presence is lived each day.

What a joy it is for me to celebrate Holy Week and Easter with you as your Pastor. I feel so blessed by God for all He has done for me. I am grateful to my staff for all they do to sow the seeds of the Gospel at St. Boniface. I am also grateful and thankful for all those who give so much of themselves and yet at times seem to go unnoticed. I am so touched by the gifts that we share as stewards, and I know it makes this parish the wonderful community that it is.

May we never take our gifts and blessing for granted and may the joy of Easter remain with us long after the flowers have died and the Alleluias fade into the background. We are blessed and redeemed by a God who loves us. What joy that understanding should be for us!

CHRIST IS RISEN...HE IS RISEN INDEED!

A very blessed and prayerful Easter to you and your families.

In Resurrected Jesus and Mary His Mother,
Fr. Bob

DIOCSE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Easter Sunday 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus:

Why do you seek the living one among the dead? Those startling words caused the puzzled women at the empty tomb to return from the tomb and announce all these things to the eleven and to all the others. And in one extraordinary moment, this great truth upended all human life and all human history. Peter and John ran to the tomb. Thomas could not believe what the other disciples told him. But it is true! He is risen as He said. Nailed to a cross Jesus nailed sin and death to that tree which by that great act became the tree of life, a bridge over death to bring us into a share in his divine life. Hail O cross, our only hope! Hail, O Savior Divine! Your death destroyed our death. On this Easter Sunday, we proclaim you as Lord and rejoice because your life gives us the sure promise of immortality. Let all the world rejoice. May all humankind recognize their Savior and proclaim His resurrection. Let Alleluia be our song. Let every heart be renewed and every life transformed. He is risen as He said!

In a particular way, Peter becomes the model for us today. Once he grasped the truth of the resurrection, he went forth to tell the good news and to witness that God had raised this Jesus up. That transformation from a frightened man with no hope to a witness to the resurrection became the permanent mark of the apostolic preaching of Peter. Every one of his successors down to our new Holy Father, Pope Francis, have been steadfast in their Easter witness to the resurrection of Christ from the dead.

Their witness reminds you and me that we too are called to be witnesses to the same truth, the same good news, the same radical transformation that is offered to every man and woman who believes and professes that Jesus is the Lord. In this Year of Faith, I offer you an Easter call to be witnesses of the Risen Christ. I call you to join the Holy Father, me and all my brother bishops in communion with Francis, in being witnesses to the Resurrection by holiness of life and active love of our neighbor, especially the poor, the marginalized, and the vulnerable whether in the womb or the nursing home. Ours is a faith that leads to action. We are called to belong more deeply to Him and to His Church so that we can be effective servants to one another, effective bearers of Christ's love. May that love that burst forth from the tomb that first Easter live in your hearts and be expressed daily in your lives and the life of His Holy Church.

In the joy of Easter, I am

Your Brother in Christ,

Bishop of Rockville Centre
