ROSARY

Mondays-Saturdays after 8am Mass in the Chapel.

Dear Parishioners,

"I tell you, unless your holiness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter the Kingdom of God." Mt 5:20

The question of who enters the Kingdom of Heaven is one that has been asked of me by so many. Who will go to heaven and who will not I can never answer. That answer is reserved to God alone and given over to His mercy and compassion. BUT...we can look to the Scriptures to find out what we need to do to accept the message of Jesus, which we know is the key to entrance into eternal life. Today in the Gospel we are given a glimpses into the mind of God and hence the answer to entry into the Kingdom of God. Jesus uses the Pharisees and scribes as a negative model. To be received into life everlasting we need to NOT act like these people. So what do we know about them? We know that Jesus is very hard on them and they are often vilified in Sacred Scriptures. This condemnation comes because as we know from the words of Jesus, "to whom much is given much is expected." These leaders knew the Scriptures and were certainly versed in the law of the prophets. Yet it was not the message they held onto but the letter of the law. They prided themselves in embracing the externals of faith but for many it did not move to that deeper level that Jesus came to preach. It is hearing the Law and relating it to the heart that it becomes more than just words to follow but rather a way of life to embrace. In their inability or refusal to take that next step, the Pharisees missed the mark and they are judged as ones to whom much was given but who fell short.

Our Gospel today warns us that it is not enough to simply follow the Law to gain eternal life. For us to be worthy of the Kingdom, we need to know WHY the Law was given. In understanding the mind of God we can see what God asks of us. Remember, our Christian Life must be journey that deepens our understanding of God's purpose for us in Jesus. So to receive Eternal Life we need to know the heart of Jesus. The images in the Gospel are sometimes brutal but teach a deeper message. So if any part of you sins...remove it. It is not enough not to act in lust or anger but to remove it from our hearts. Coming to Mass to worship the Lord is great of course but if we hold onto grudges and cannot forgive we have lost the true meaning of what we do in Church. These may seem like difficult teachings but St Paul reminds us today that they are "beyond the mind of men and woman" but are "revealed by God through the Holy Spirit." So if God has revealed them we know that the Holy Spirit will give us the grace and power to live them if we are open to that grace. The Old Testament prophet Sirach (or Ecclesiasticus) reminds us that we have been given a choice of life or death and whatever we choose shall be given to us. So who goes to heaven - I don't know - but I do know we have the choice to be saved and live the life of Jesus or to reject it. But it takes a conversion of heart. What actions or mindsets need to be removed so that you may know God in this life and be with Him in the life to come? What is your choice: life or death?

In Jesus,
Fr. Bob

Take Five for Faith

✠ SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 16

Breaking Bad, the highly acclaimed AMC television series in which a desperate and dying chemistry teacher decides to become a producer of methamphetamine to make sure his family is cared for, is a modern morality tale that illustrates the destruction and death that are the consequences of making wrong choices, or “breaking bad,” as it were. With each ill-conceived decision it becomes easier to make the next until you become so turned around that you completely lose your moral compass. Take the time to map out your choices to see where they will lead—and then choose the path of righteousness.

✠ MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17

The life of faith rarely lacks testing and doubt, however desirable it would be to do without those things. Complications and setbacks, being part of faith, should not, however, cause you to abandon it. Abraham Lincoln, whom Americans remember today, told a group of Presbyterian leaders in Baltimore in 1863: “Amid the greatest difficulties of my administration, when I could not see any other resort, I would place my whole reliance on God, knowing that all would go well, and that he would decide for the right.” Sometimes the best response to a crisis of faith is . . . more faith.

✠ TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18

As any baker will tell you, a small amount of leaven—yeast—goes a long way, working its effect on a much larger mass of dough. For this reason Jews of Jesus’ age saw the fermentation process brought on by leaven as a metaphor for a corrupting influence, something that in excess would overflow its container. Jesus warned his disciples to be on guard against the “leaven” of leaders—religious or political—who sought to manipulate the people by exercising authority beyond its proper bounds. Jesus had a healthy skepticism about authority not grounded in humility and respect. A wise attitude, history teaches us.

✠ WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19

Public leaders used to be accused sometimes of being fuzzy on “the vision thing.” Do they have a plan, or are they merely rushing around to a lot of meetings and getting their pictures taken? Self-reflection requires you to ask the same question of yourself. Are you stumbling through your life reacting randomly to events as they come, or do you have clear goals and values? Compassion and single-heartedness comprise the Christian life. All the rituals of faith prepare you for this.

✠ THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20

Christian faith offers a remarkable insight: Don’t judge others, because if you do you call down God’s judgment on yourself—as if your behavior is so unblemished to take that risk. Judging others, though, takes other forms than out-and-out condemnation. It’s also involved in making unjust distinctions, like favoring the rich and powerful because, well, they’re wealthy and influential. That favoritism lacks justice because it comes at the expense of the poor. Avoid not only judging others but also judging between others.

✠ FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21

What does it mean to lose your life for the sake of the gospel? Each of us has to answer that question, but certainly it involves letting go of some of the self-serving patterns of behavior you acquire in life. It’s not “all about me”—we are in this together. That doesn’t mean you don’t take good care of yourself; it means you find a way also to take good care of others. You don’t have to seek martyrdom, but you do have to accept some of the “little deaths” that come every day from sacrificing something for the well-being of others. As the author C. S. Lewis had one of his characters put it, “Die before you die. There is no chance after.”

✠ SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22

Feast of the Chair of St. Peter the Apostle

Like a number of Christian celebrations, the Feast of the Chair of Peter has its roots in an older non-Christian religious observance, the Parentalia, when people would set out an empty chair to honor a deceased family member or friend. In today’s feast, however, the church looks not to an empty chair but to an occupied one, and what we remember is not an absent figure but a living presence, the leadership and teaching position of Saint Peter in the early church and what that has come to symbolize. May Peter’s chair serve to remind you of the contributions you can make to supporting healthy and effective leadership—practice some yourself.

ST. BONIFACE MARTYR YOUTH GROUP

There will be NO youth group this Sunday. The next meeting will be on February 23, immediately following the 10:15am mass for an afternoon of Midnight Run preparations. All 8-12 graders are welcome. St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel, Jesus says, "Whoever fulfills and teaches these commands, shall be great in the Kingdom of Heaven." By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you indeed put your faith into action as you fulfill the commands of Jesus. Thank you for all your support!

Furniture and financial donations are always welcome. You are too! Come join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and be a communal part of your parish. Call 822-3132.

ALL SAINTS REGIONAL CATHOLIC SCHOOL

FAITH - FOUNDATION - FUTURE

February 2014

What's New at ASR!

At the Headmaster's Ball!

Our Parish's Catholic school recently continued a gala tradition by celebrating the 2nd Annual Headmaster's Ball. The Venetian Masquerade themed ball took place at the Glen Cove Mansion. Several local families and dignitaries were honored at this dazzling event. Honorees included Msgr. James Pereda, Marie Agosta, Mario and Linda Reali and Alfred and Maryanne Small.

The event was a perfect culmination of Catholic Schools Week bringing together the "All Saints Family", a family which joins our parish in support for Catholic education through our words, deeds, and financial support.

About our School:

All Saints Regional Catholic School combines the heritages of a century of Catholic education among the Catholic parishes on the North Shore. ASR combines that proud heritage with a new preparatory school model and the latest innovations in instruction and technology. Drawing students from its five founding parishes and beyond, All Saints' dynamic leadership and outstanding faculty of men and women enthusiastically embody the school's mission of offering children a positive, safe and healthy learning environment in which they can gain a foundation for future academic success, personal achievement, social commitment and character formation.

Did you know...

- That ASR is the only school in the Diocese headed by a Priest as its Headmaster?
- That each ASR student's enjoys a substantial tuition subsidy?
- That additional tuition assistance is available to the children of many middle-income families?
- That all our middle school religion classes are taught by Pastors of our local parishes and other Priests?
- That the dramatic academic and institutional initiatives undertaken at ASR over the past two years have resulted in a dramatic increase in enrollment, bucking regional trends?

Also this past month....

Once a month, our unique ASR ST.A.R.S.* (*Study, Activities, Recreation and Service) Afterschool Program sponsors a "Fun Friday" party with cultural and religious themes for students right after school.

Themes include Chinese New Year, St. Patrick's

Day, Earth Day, Cinco de Mayo and the Feast of St. Anthony.

Students wait to greet the Dragon Parade! with a lot of noise

This month over thirty students celebrated Chinese New Year, enjoying traditional and party food, a DJ, a Chinese New Year Lion Dog Dance Parade, crafts, dancing and more!

Here comes the dragon!!

During the party, the children learned many things about the Lunar New Year.

Enjoying a traditional meal.

Members of middle school DJ Club provide music for Fun Friday Parties.
