Dear Parishioners,

Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Eph. 5:11

These days of Lent, and actually the entire journey as believers, can surely be summed up by these words of St. Paul. To live in Jesus we not only have to know Him through the Scriptures, prayer and the Sacraments, but in knowing Him we must live our lives in a response of love to Him. What better way for us to show that love than to live lives that "are pleasing to the Lord"?

In many of our Catholic Schools there is a beautiful motto that has become very popular. It is "WWJD?", which translates as "What Would Jesus Do?" If we spend our days reflecting on what the response of Jesus would be in each and every situation we find ourselves in and act accordingly, how pleasing would that be to Jesus? The very desire to be pleasing to Jesus and to do what He would want is gift in itself. Doing so puts us out of the darkness of sin and into the Light of Jesus. A light that leads us to the path of holiness. Lent is about moving from the darkness and secrecies of our own sin - those actions that shame keeps hidden in the dark and brings them into the light of day. Bringing them to the light allows the grace and hand of Jesus to transform them into the goodness and righteousness of truth. The Gospel reminds us that Jesus came into the world that we might see the light of truth; a truth that is founded in its fulfillment in the very person and ministry of Jesus. So, each day in each interaction...ask yourself the question "WWJD?" If you are open to the power of the Holy Spirit and try to assimilate what is "pleasing to Jesus" we can be His instruments in the world and gain for us not only eternal life, but some peace in this one. How great would that be?!

Last Saturday we celebrated St Patrick's Day with a supper. It was a wonderful night that included Irish Step Dancers, two musicians playing Irish instruments, raffles, great food and wonderful company. I am so grateful to those who made the night possible by their planning, set up, serving, raffle baskets and clean up. Many thanks to Randa and Jeff Barrington, Deacon Tom and Pat Fox, Nancy Furlong, Josie Hart, John Kavanaugh, Maryellen and Steve Kerr, Eileen Krieb, Síghle and Robert Lynch, many hands certainly make light work!

The restoration and renovation committee is working very hard to "flesh out" a beautiful design for our Church. I encourage you to go to our parish website to stay updated and send me any comments or suggestions. We have a very beautiful and extensive web site. I want to thank Robert Lynch, our webmaster, for all the time and hard work he spends in the up keep of our website.

Please use these days of Lent to deepen your relationship with Jesus so we may celebrate with even deeper joy the great feast of Easter. A reminder that daily Mass is celebrated at 8 am in the chapel and confessions are heard each Saturday at 4 pm.

Saturday April 12 from 9:30 AM to 3:00 PM
Seminary of the Immaculate Conception
440 West Neck Road, Huntington, NY

Dr. Katherine Hayes, Seminary of the Immaculate Conception will lead us in the conversation. Pope Francis has been challenging us to reflect on our baptism and respond to the call to be "missionary disciples." The enthusiasm surrounding his recent exhortation, "The Joy of the Gospel," (Evangelii Gaudium), has inspired us to reflect on this challenge as women in the Church here on Long Island. # Take Five for Faith

Sunday, March 30: Fourth Sunday of Lent

In the solemn keeping of Lent it's good to have a lighter moment of celebration, and today steps forward to fill that role. "Laetare" Sunday gets its name from one of the prayers in the Mass: "Rejoice . . . Be joyful" (Isaiah 66). This note of joy serves to remind the church that for all its seriousness the ultimate destination of Lent is that most joyous event of all—Easter—the triumph of love and life over sin, suffering, and death itself. What signs of joy and hope can you see today?

Monday, March 31

"Hear our prayer" is a common response to the Prayers of the Faithful. Though you may go to God humbly, sometimes you have a pretty good idea of what you want God to do; all that's needed is for God to set your plan in motion. Yet faith requires not a well-thought-out solution but a willingness to give yourself over to God. Faith can free you from your own expectations. Faith can open you to the boundless possibilities of ways that God can respond. While planning and expectations can be good, you are called to cling not to those things but to God.

Tuesday, April 1

Did you know today is the beginning of the "Month of the Eucharist"? Every year the church dedicates each month to the observance of a different aspect of Roman Catholic life. January is the Month of the Holy Name of Jesus; February: the Passion of the Lord; March: Saint Joseph; May: Our Lady; June: the Sacred Heart of Jesus; July: the Precious Blood; August: the Immaculate Heart of Mary; September: Our Lady of Sorrows; October: the Rosary; November: the Holy Souls; and December: the Divine Infancy. This month, as Lent comes to a close and the Easter Season begins, how can you deepen your appreciation and participation in the Eucharist?

Wednesday, April 2

Memorial of St. Francis of Paola

Francis of Paola, from 15th-century Italy, was a true original. Inspired by Saint Francis of Assisi, he founded the order of "Mimims," "the least of the least," and like his namesake, "little Francis," as he was sometimes called, chose not to be ordained a priest. Committed to complete humility, Francis expressed his radical call to nonviolence by following what we would now call a vegan diet—abstaining from all animal products: meat, fish, fowl, eggs, dairy products, and the like. If you are a meat-eater, pick a day this Lent to see if you can follow the example of Francis by fasting from all things animal. It might be a humbling experience!

Thursday, April 3

The word idol simply means "image"; in itself pretty harmless. It can, however, have a darker connotation. At the top of the list of commandments God gave the ancient Israelites was: "You shall not have other gods beside me. You shall not make for yourself an idol" (Exodus 20:3-4). Turning something or someone that is not God into a god makes that thing into an idol, and worshipping it is idolatry. An icon also means an image—but there's a difference: Idols point only to themselves; icons point beyond themselves to God. In this Lenten season of fasting, get rid of stand-ins for God. Instead, make your life an icon, grounded in the reality of the real God.

Friday, April 4

Most of the time you can't spot a Catholic in a crowd. Unless you're a religious or cleric wearing distinctive dress, you appear like everybody else. There is such a thing, however, as a "Catholic look." The world sees it most distinctly on Ash Wednesday, when you sport a dirty face in public. It's much more subtle when you ask the wait staff, "Is there meat in this soup?" These are external signs of inward realities that hopefully are working their way to the surface. Will they know you are a Christian by your love? When they do, you've arrived.

Saturday, April 5

Memorial of St. Vincent Ferrer

The church has been through some rough stretches over the centuries. One such period occurred during the papal schism in the 1300s when several men claimed to be the true pope at the same time. So complex and divisive were the politics that two holy leaders living in Spain at the same time—Saints Vincent Ferrer and Catherine of Siena—supported opposing claimants to the papacy. Ferrer later said the schism had such a depressing effect as to ruin his health for life. Though at times you must stand on principle, prolonged divisions hurt everyone. In your own family, neighborhood, and church, be a uniter, not a divider!

This Sunday the Youth Group Music Ministry rehearsal for the Good Friday Stations of the Cross will be at 5pm in the youth center. The Youth Group meeting will be this Sunday from 6pm-8pm in the youth center. All 8-12 graders are welcome.

For an updated schedule of youth group events join our Facebook page 'St. Boniface Martyr Youth Group or email the youth minister, Chris, at stbonym@gmail.com.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel, as Jesus gives sight to the blind man we are also transformed from not seeing to seeing and then sent to help others see and come to believe. Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we may help them.

Thank you for all your support!

Furniture and financial donations are always welcome.

You are too! Come join the St. Vincent de Paul Society
