Ash Wednesday is February 18.

All Catholics who have reached their 14th year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 15

Pray for an outbreak of compassion

Before the latest Ebola outbreak, there was SARS, AIDS, plagues and epidemics of all sorts, and always, leprosy. In every age, people have been ostracized and worse simply because they carry a disease that is not well understood. Ignorance leads to fear, which in turn leads to discrimination and sometimes to measures that in hindsight are seen as unnecessarily harsh. Thankfully, Jesus modeled another way of interacting with those who suffer from a frightening ailment. Compassionate care is called for.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16

Feast of St. Polycarp

The Martyrdom of Polycarp is considered one of the earliest accounts of Christian martyrdom and is one of the very few genuine accounts from the actual age of the persecutions. Polycarp, born less than 50 years after Jesus' death, may have been one of the earliest believers, but he displayed a very mature faith. At the close of his life, as he faced martyrdom, he is recorded to have said, "Eighty and six years I have served Him, and He has done me no wrong. How then can I blaspheme my King and Savior? Bring forth what you will." Though you or I may not face the test of martyrdom, we face small tests of faith daily. How we respond reveals the depth of our own faith.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17

Feast of the 7 Holy Founders of the Servite Order

Sometimes the burdens of the world seem so heavy and ugly that good souls feel the need to withdraw. The Desert Mothers and Fathers were such persons, and so were many others over the centuries who took the path of isolation. In 1240 seven Florentine nobles did just that, eventually forming the Servite Order. Most people are neither inclined nor prepared for such a radical step, let alone a lifestyle of it. But isn't it possible to withdraw regularly even in a single day, to disconnect from all those electronic wonders, not forever, but for a while? The voice of God is often small, a whispering sound. You need quiet to hear it.

✠ ASH WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18

Day of Fast and Abstinence

The Lenten season is upon us, and with it, many traditions. For instance, though Lent is 40 days, echoing Jesus' 40 days in the desert, the actual number of days until Easter is 46. But the six

Sundays, with the celebration of Eucharist echoing Resurrection, traditionally have been considered days on which fasting is not appropriate, so Lent runs Monday to Saturday (six days) for six weeks, and when you add the first four days, from Ash Wednesday to Saturday of this week, the total is 40 days from today to Holy Saturday. Traditions abound. Another example: The ashes used today were made from palm branches blessed last year on Palm Sunday. Cherish the traditions handed down to you.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19

Choices are a blessing and a curse. You're lucky if you have plenty of options in life, but it's hard to know which ones to pick: Should I go to college? Should I get married? Is this the best job for my career? When should I retire? It's impossible to know what lies ahead, so it helps to let God take the lead. That doesn't mean being passive, but simply trusting in God's will. Relinquishing control to the One who loves you might be the best decision you ever make.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20

Abstinence makes the heart grow fonder

Today, like all Fridays in Lent, is a day of abstinence, a day of eating simply and refraining from meat. This simple act can become rote, without much thought about why. It calls for intentionality: a clear, thoughtful, informed decision to abstain, but from what? Meat? Perhaps, but how about abstaining—in that same clear, thoughtful manner—from gossip, from rash judgments, from nagging, from teasing others? This personal choice to abstain is not merely about "building character." It is to build up the body of the church.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21

Feast of St. Peter Damian

Modern-day sainthood requires endless paperwork before the canonical seal of approval. Not so for 11th-century Peter Damian, who was never formally canonized. As bishop, he was a one-man revolution against "bad priests"—those who took money in return for absolving sins. The rich were always happy to pay for their crimes, and some clerics just as glad to grease the wheels of their patrons' salvation. For his learning, zeal, and integrity, Peter was named a Doctor of the church in 1828. Sidestep the paperwork: Be a saint in integrity of heart!
