Take Five for Faith

SUNDAY, JULY 20

What would you write if a friend asked you to describe her on Twitter? Maybe you'd note some physical traits, such as black hair, tall in stature, brown eyes. Maybe you'd highlight spiritual qualities, such as kindness, generosity, and patience. There's so much you'd like to say about your friend, but in only 140 characters or fewer is it really possible to say something deeply meaningful? Enter scripture! Scripture often expresses complex ideas in creative, concise ways, such as parables, allegories, and metaphors. How might it inform your use of social media?

MONDAY, JULY 21

MEMORIAL OF ST. LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI

Like Saint Francis of Assisi himself, Saint Lawrence, a Capuchin Franciscan, saw the Incarnation as key to everything. "God is love, and all his operations proceed from love. Once he wills to manifest that goodness by sharing his love outside himself," Lawrence wrote, "then the Incarnation becomes the supreme manifestation of his goodness and love and glory . . . Christ is the first-born of every creature, and the whole of humanity as well as the created world finds its foundation and meaning in him." How can you ground yourself in Christ and his love?

TUESDAY, JULY 22

MEMORIAL OF ST. MARY MAGDALENE

Mary Magdalene is the subject of much conjecture, but what is known about her for sure is that she was a sinner who became part of Jesus' inner circle. She was also one of the few of his followers who stayed with him during his Crucifixion, and she was the first to find his tomb empty and the first to see him after his Resurrection. Her simple presence shows the extent of her love and devotion—she was there for him. How often do you show up for the people who need you?

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23

Have you ever felt as if you weren't ready for what was being asked of you? Maybe you thought you were too young or too old, not prepared or worthy enough to do something others requested. God's invitations to growth, though, come in all shapes and sizes. Sometimes it's in doing what you don't think you can or facing what you'd rather not that can yield the most astounding results. Today don't tell God what you aren't ready for; instead let God ready you for all you are capable of.

THURSDAY, JULY 24

MEMORIAL OF ST. SHARBEL MAKHLUF

Saint Sharbel, born in Lebanon in 1828, entered a monastic community at 23 and lived out his days near the Quadasha Valley, the "Holy Valley" in Lebanon and home to the famous Forest of the Cedars of God. The cedar is the symbol of Lebanon, and in Sharbel's time the mountains of that country were covered by thick forests of them. After centuries of persistent deforestation, however, the forests have diminished dramatically. While it is true, as poet Joyce Kilmer put it, that "only God can make a tree," we humans can certainly plant them. Plant a tree nearby and green up the earth a bit!

FRIDAY, JULY 25

FEAST OF ST. JAMES

Today the church remembers the James who along with his brother John and Peter formed the inner circle of apostles around Jesus. It seems the two brothers were impetuous about saying what they thought because they got the nickname "Sons of Thunder." They were also ambitious, wanting to sit at Christ's right and left hands in the Kingdom. Great saints like the apostles offer examples to follow but also sometimes to learn from; that, too, is part of their gift to the church. Where they were over the top, you can be patient. Where they sought status, you can be humble.

SATURDAY, JULY 26

MEMORIAL OF ST. JOACHIM AND ST. ANNE

Matthew and Luke furnish genealogies for Jesus that traced his ancestry to show that he is the culmination of God's great promises. His grandparents, Joachim and Anne—whether their real names or not—represent that long series of generations who faithfully performed their duties, kept the faith, and waited faithfully for the Messiah, while, like many of our own grandparents, they happily remained in the background. "Grandparents are a treasure," Pope Francis said. "Often old age isn't pretty, right? There is sickness and all that, but the wisdom our grandparents have is something we must welcome as an inheritance."
