Faith ~ Foundation ~ Future

Dear Parishioners,

"I have called you by name." Is 45:4

A great exercise to bring to our daily prayer life is to ponder these words from the prophet Isaiah. I often encounter people who believe they can't be loved by God or be His instrument in doing the work of the Kingdom. We have a tendency to focus on our failings rather than the gifts entrusted to us.

What does it mean that God has "called us by name"? First it is the realization that God has called us and claimed us as His own through the waters of Baptism. He has forgiven our sins and has shown us the path of His "plan" for us. Secondly, when God calls us by name, this means He wishes to continue communicating with us. He wants to help us navigate a path through this world that is at times messy and confusing. He wants to be our comfort in times of pain and celebrate in our joyful moments. Communicating also entails His Word to help us discern in the choices of life. If He wants to communicate why does it seem that when we need God the most, He seems most silent? The answer may be that we are not listening, spending time in silent prayer as we wait on the Lord. Jesus in God is always speaking in the background of our lives. Can we be too busy to stop and listen? When we allow the voice of Jesus to be heard in the midst of the noise that desired communication can be a reality in our lives. In hearing the voice of Jesus we can find meaning and purpose in how we live. When we understand that we are loved how much more so can we then realize the gifts entrusted to us have value to others and need to be shared. We then can truly feel why we are called by name...we are loved.

When we hear God's voice and understand our own gifts and talents are our gifts from Him to be used within our own sphere of influence, we find ourselves delighted in what we are doing. Yes, at times we may become frustrated and wonder if we are even coming close to making a difference, but if we are listening - if we take time to look at those affected by what we do as we use what God has given us - we will indeed come to a deep satisfaction with our lives knowing we are serving God and serving others. And we sense that satisfaction all because God has called us by name.

This past Sunday-Monday our confirmandi went on retreat as they prepare for this wondrous Sacrament. It was a Holy Spirit-filled two days. You would have been as proud of our young people as I was. They were open, engaged and open to the power of Jesus. Their responses often moved me to tears. It was certainly a "high" for all of us who participated. I want to thank the many who helped the retreat be such a success and spiritual time away. Thank you is extended to the parents who volunteered as chaperones and entered into the retreat experience: Letizia Barbetta, Joanna Bianchi, Tom Burger, JoAnn Campbell, Reeni Dey, Matt Garry (our chef), Robert Lynch, Philip Milo, Laura Morea, Tom Reagan, Donna Rivera, Claudette Rowell, Catherine Stehling, Lorna Szemerényi. I am always graceful to our Confirmation Coordinator, Pat Warner. We were blessed to have members of our Youth Group who gave up their day of to assist, lead discussion and offer personal witness talk: Gabby Gartner, Carolina Pardo and Sam Szemerényi. None of this would be possible without the hard work, coordinating and organization of our D. R. E., Karen Croce. Last but certainly not least I offer my thanks and appreciation to our Youth Minister, Chris Mandato. His enthusiasm, faith and energy truly inspires our young people and the adults present. This retreat was certainly a high point in all our lives. Please enjoy the pictures and the chain of intercessions written by the young people that will be placed in the vestibule of our Church.

I encourage you to continue to pray the Rosary in this month of October.

In Jesus,
Fr. Bob

<sup>6</sup> Take Five for Faith

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow— a day at a time.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2014

When Jesus speaks about giving to God and giving to Caesar, he is not talking about the “separation of church and state.” He’s making not a political statement, but a theological one. What “belongs” to God? Why, everything! “All your heart, soul, mind and strength.” If you have secular obligations and if they are just, then you fulfill them as an honorable citizen, but your “heart, soul and mind” belong not to the state, nor to your job or your favorite pastime. “You belong to Christ; and Christ belongs to God.”

MONDAY, OCTOBER 20

MEMORIAL OF ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS

Paul of the Cross, a mystic, saw in the Lord’s suffering and dying the greatest demonstration of God’s love. Though Jesus could have resisted his persecutors, he chose not to. Paul encouraged us to imitate Christ especially when tempted to lash out at someone who is bothering or irritating us. On a small scale we can choose the path Jesus chose on a very large scale: “When you feel the assaults of passion and anger,” wrote Paul, “then is the time to be silent as Jesus was silent in the midst of His ignominies and sufferings.” Though this approach runs counter to our assertive culture, try it out sometime and see if it does not bear unexpected fruit in your own life.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21

Being a Christian means waiting in hope with love. For centuries, believers have waited for Jesus’ return. The first disciples thought Christ’s return was imminent. That belief kept the fires of belief stoked, and that faith has been passed on through the years. Today, you can meet Christ through personal encounters in prayer, Eucharist, and other people. Meet everyone like Christ—that’s the mark of a living faith. That way, when Jesus comes, you will meet him with the same unifying love he shares with all people—even if you don’t recognize him right away.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22

MEMORIAL OF ST. JOHN PAUL II

Lots of superlatives apply to John Paul II. He was one of the most popular and longest-serving popes in modern times and one of the most travelled world leaders in history. As part of his emphasis on the universal call to holiness, he beatified and canonized more people than all of the popes in the previous 500 years combined. He himself was canonized a mere nine years after his death. He’s an inspiration to Catholics, all of whom are charged to be stewards of God’s grace and to be quick to bestow it. Share the grace of your own faith today.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23

MEMORIAL OF ST. JOHN OF CAPISTRANO

We live in dangerous and volatile times, no denying. Perhaps you hold back from giving more of yourself to God and neighbor for fear that it will all go to waste. Why bother if the world is so messed up, right? Wrong! It is times like these that demand our greatest commitment. John of Capistrano didn’t hold back, and he lived in some pretty turbulent times himself back in the 14th century. One third of Western Europe, and 40 percent of the clergy, was wiped out by bubonic plague. The church was in schism and great powers warred. All of it makes our own day seem positively tame. Don’t hold back—get some skin into the game.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24

MEMORIAL OF ST. ANTHONY MARY CLARET

Some saints make their mark by doing only one thing, but doing it very well. Others, like Anthony Mary Claret, paint with a broader brush. Among other things, Claret founded a religious order, fought for social change, was a writer and publisher, archbishop and refugee, even for a while chaplain to the queen of Spain—against his wishes, as he let her know. He was especially revered in Cuba where he spoke out against the abuses of slavery, which rankled the landed class and brought upon him no less than 14 attempts on his life. Claret, you might say, lived life large. Dare to dream your own big dreams for the sake of the gospel—and get out there to make them happen.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Media resources tend to shower glory on athletes, celebrities, and winning candidates. This worldly praise and honor doesn’t resemble the divine attribute of glory much. God chooses to share a reflection of divine glory with a surprisingly different cast of characters: the meek, the lowly, the little ones. This glory gives the saints their radiant haloes and makes people with loving ways shine when they walk in the room. On this final Saturday of Rosary Month, pray the Glorious Mysteries for more radiant ones to bless our world!
