Dear Parishioners,

"As the Father has sent me, so I send you." Jn 64:65

In these days of celebration as we reflect on the power of the Resurrection of Jesus, we always need to ask ourselves what it means for us. In today's Gospel, St. Thomas doubted the resurrection of Jesus. He needed proof, physical proof. Touching and seeing would be the only thing to convince him. It seems that the sight of Jesus is enough, St. Thomas bows and says, "My Lord and my God." Such great words and a deep profession of faith. One that each believer must, in their own life, come to grips with. When we can truly profess Jesus as our Lord and Savior, then we can believe His message for us. What does He do in today's Gospel? He sends the Disciples out into the world. They are to go with a message proclaiming to all, the words of St. Thomas . . . MY LORD AND MY GOD.

The Holy Spirit that Jesus breathed on those frightened people huddled in that Upper Room is the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. The Holy Spirit doesn't give us a power of fear, but one of strength and faith. He is there to help us in our doubts, fears and weaknesses. BUT that Spirit works in us if we like St. Thomas fall before the Lord and proclaim Him as Lord. If we cannot do that right now in certainty of belief, then we need to fall again before Jesus and ask for the gift of deep faith. To ask the Holy Spirit to remove the doubt or need for "proof" to believe. The proof is certainly around us if we have the eyes to see and the ears to hear. Look around and see the hand of God. Faith in Jesus then calls us to share His love to all the world. As He sends the Disciples out . . . He does the same for us. Do not be afraid, Jesus did for the 11 as He does for us...He offers His peace. DO NOT BE AFRAID!

There has been so many beautiful events surrounding our Easter preparations and celebrations. I would like to thank the members of our St. Martha's Altar Guild for the beautiful gift of their hands as they decorated our Altar and Sanctuary.

On Good Friday our Youth Group led us in Stations of the Cross. Through song, gesture, words and actions they brought us to a moving remembrance of the Way of the Cross and the last few hours of the life of Jesus. It was beyond beautiful! I was blown away by the spirituality by which they presented Stations of the Cross. The music was assisted and played by Diane Billings. Diane has been a great presence to the Youth Group in all the times they have led us in worship in the past. She has been a blessing to them (and us). After the Stations, the Youth Group went to the Parish Center for their annual "lock in" where they spent the night in fasting, prayer and spiritual talks. I was privileged to be able to lead them in a guided meditation on Sacred Scripture. A very special thank you goes also to our Youth Minister, Chris Mandato. Chris has organized and coordinated the Stations of the Cross and led the Youth Group in the lock-in. His presence has added such life to our parish and he has inspired our Youth Ministry.

To all who helped in the Holy Week and Easter Liturgies, I want to thank you all. They were beautiful and prayerful. Thank you to the Ushers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Altar Servers and our fantastic Music Ministry under the direction of Jeff Schneider.

Though we weren't able to have our Easter Egg Hunt this year, many thanks to the Religious Education families who contributed candy and eggs, to Lorraine O'Sullivan and Karen Croce who made up goody bags, and to the following Confirmandi who helped distribute the bags after 10:15am Mass:

Maura Lynch, Kaylin Burger, Lily Burger, Alyssa Dey, Kristen Weydig, Grace Magner, Liam O'Hanlon, Sarah Stehling, Ryan Nemirov.

I would also like to thank all those who helped with our dedication and consecration mass and reception - a day of rejoicing for our parish. I am so grateful for the presence of our Bishop and our parishioners.

CHRIST IS RISEN . . . HE IS RISEN INDEED!

In Jesus our Resurrected Lord,
Fr. Bob

The youth group meets on Sundays from 6pm-8pm in the Parish Center.

All 8th-12th graders are invited!

Second Sunday of Easter, April 12, 2015

There's a classic scene in the 1975 movie Jaws where Quint, Hooper, and Brody are at sea, comparing the scars they have. From a moray eel bite to an arm-wrestling match, each scar contains the memory of great physical and emotional pain. Their conversation is more than a friendly game of bettering the other ("I got that beat!"); it's a way of sharing and weaving together significant stories on their journey. The scars we have witness not only to hardship but also to resilience! Consider the scars that you bear. How might they impart meaning to yourself and to others?

Monday, April 13

Feast of Martin I, pope, martyr

Get a powerful person angry and you often pay a penalty. Martin I became the last pope-martyr for accepting his election without waiting for the emperor's approval. That "mistake" was followed quickly by another: Martin condemned a notion the emperor favored. Folks like the emperor preferred to think of Christ's humanity as dissolving "like a drop of honey in the sea" of his divinity—rendering Christ's free choice to save us as no choice at all. Goodness must always be chosen, which makes us truly human and not puppets—as emperors then and now would like us to be.

Tuesday, April 14

There is a folksy saying, attributed to many different ethnic groups, that goes: "Every baby is born with a loaf of bread under his arm." In so many words, it means that God will provide, even if you're not exactly sure how. It's difficult to let go of worry in the face of uncertainty, whether it's being able to care for a child or to handle any important responsibility. Your willingness to try, despite your fears, without knowing the outcome, shows faith. Trust that God will see you through it.

Wednesday, April 15

As the days of Easter continue, the light of the Easter dawn shines brightly. That light revealed that Christ had risen and, in the light of day, called his disciples to go out and spread the Good News. God was living and breathing in them. As they shared their faith journeys, more and more light entered the world. By that light, we believe. And in the light of the Risen Christ, there is hope and freedom and grace. Today, see the light that shines within you. Tend the flames of mercy and find the Good News this day holds!

Thursday, April 16

Scripture is replete with images of the abundance of God: from the widow of Zarephath receiving alabaster jars full of flour and oil to the miracle of water becoming wine at the wedding feast in Cana. How might this characteristic of God inform our own activities? What choices might we make in our relationships, at work, or standing in line at the grocery store? How might we live out of God's abundance even on those days or weeks or years of feeling like we have less than nothing? Let us nudge our alabaster jar toward God and trust that God will take care of the rest.

Friday, April 17

Feast of Kateri Tekakwitha

The smallpox Kateri suffered as a child left her with a scarred face and near blindness, hence her name Tekakwitha—"She who bumps into things," which seems cruel, but also might be a reminder of unpredictable grace. Years ago, when the bumper sticker "S happens" was popular, Bishop Richard Sklba countered such a defeatist attitude by reminding us that "Grace happens" too. What we bump into and what bumps into us every day are countless opportunities to wake up to God's grace at work. Maybe you will "bump into" a neighbor or stranger to whom you can be of some service today.

Saturday, April 18

The church is built on community. Together, the People of God welcome new members in Baptism, come together to be fed in the Eucharist, and witness faith proclaimed at Confirmation. Such community nurtures, supports, and affirms the universality and unity of church. When gathering around the table to celebrate, give thanks, and worship, it is helpful from time to time to look and see those around us. Who isn't present? Who isn't being served at the table? Who have I shut out? Our call is to spread the Good News . . . and sometimes the greatest news is that all are welcome.
