St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel the people ask : "How is it such miraculous deeds are accomplished by his hands?" Because of your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, many "miraculous deeds" are accomplished for the poor. This week put a gift in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box, knowing that through your kindness someone who is suffering will be touched by God in a miraculous way.

As you place your gift in the Society of St Vincent de Paul Poor Box or envelopes by the main doors of the church, please say a prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

Furniture donations are always welcome, please call 822-3132. If you wish to join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and be a communal part of your parish, call the Fr. James Donohoe Parish Center at 676-0676 for details. Thank you for your generosity!

Dear Parishioners:

"Now learn a lesson from the fig tree: as soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out you know it is summer." (Mt 24:32) Summertime, a more relaxed and easy going time of year for the vast majority of people, and after a very long and cold winter, I think most of us will welcome the longer days and warmer weather when we can enjoy the beauty of God's creation outdoors with barbeques, beach & pool visits, and some needed vacation time.

This summertime weekend we celebrate our nation's independence and give thanks to Almighty God for the many freedoms we enjoy as Americans. One of these freedoms is Freedom of Religion, the right to practice our faith, and as Catholics we do that in variety of ways, and the most important way is attendance at Sunday mass.

In this season of vacations, it is important to remember that there should be no vacation from God. Vatican II tells us "the Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life" (Lumen Gentium, no. 11). Please make Sunday mass a priority for you and your family even during vacations and visits to far and not so far away places. If you are away from St. Boniface, Martyr over a weekend and are unsure of the location and mass times of a Catholic church, please visit the following website: www.masstimes.org. All you need to do is enter the city and state of the location you are visiting, and the website will direct you to the nearest Catholic Church and indicate the mass times.

On another note, thank you for your warm welcome to St. Boniface, Martyr! I am happy to be here, and I look forward to continuing the journey of faith with you, and building upon the wonderful work done by my predecessor, Fr. Bob Romeo. Since, I am very new here, I will rely on your help and suggestions so that we might keep moving forward in faith and continue to bring to fruition the good work that God has begun here. Please pray for me as I do for you.

Love,
Fr. Kevin

Pope Francis has observed that “religion [cannot] be relegated to the inner sanctum of personal life, without influence on societal and national life.” Evangelii Gaudium. . . , no. 183. In insisting that our liberties as Americans be respected, Pope Benedict XVI said that this work belongs to “an engaged, articulate and well-formed Catholic laity endowed with a strong critical sense vis-à-vis the dominant culture.” Therefore, catechesis on religious liberty is not the work of priests alone. If religious liberty is not properly understood, all people suffer and are deprived of the essential contribution to the common good, be it in education, health care, feeding the hungry, civil rights, and social services that individuals make every day, both here at home and overseas.

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION MISSION STATEMENT

America’s First Amendment guarantees its citizens five freedoms, the first of which is Freedom of Religion. Freedom of Religion includes the freedom to worship according to one’s beliefs as well as the freedom to practice that faith in everyday life according to one’s conscience.

So that this First Amendment freedom may be practiced and preserved for generations yet unborn it is essential that Americans understand this freedom and the circumstances from which it came. A fitting place for the development of this understanding and protection of Religious Freedom is inside all faith communities. Catholics for Freedom of Religion offers resources to parish members who work to support Religious Freedom by initiating parish laity groups with these suggested goals:

- To educate and inspire for Freedom of Religion
- To remain non-partisan, advocating for no candidate or party
- To invite and include other faith communities
- To become a permanent group within each parish to educate every generation of Catholics about our Freedom of Religion...how rare it is, how dearly it was purchased for us and how certainly it is being lost.
- To recognize and oppose attacks on Freedom of Religion from any source

“We hold it for a fundamental and undeniable truth, that religion, or the duty we owe our Creator and the manner of discharging it, can be directed only by reason and conviction, not by force or violence. The religion then of every man must be left to the conviction and conscience of every man; and it is the right of every man to exercise it as these may dictate. This right is in its nature an unalienable right.” - James Madison

“While Americans presume that the Constitution guarantees their rights, in practice our rights survive or disappear based on how firmly we defend them.”

- Archbishop Charles J. Chaput

Take Five for Faith

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: July 5

Ezekiel today uses the expression “the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet,” a rather graphic description of the Spirit’s power, important because “spirit” can seem abstract, airy, and forgettable. But God’s spirit is power. It “sets us on our feet,” it catapults us into action as it once drove Jesus into the desert to be tempted. It gives us the words we need to stand against evil and to act righteously. Yesterday, we expressed our patriotic spirit using many of these same images of ideals, strength, power, and action. Do you treasure the very Spirit of God at work in you as much as you value your country?

Monday, July 6

Feast of St. Maria Goretti

“What is the joy of God? It is to forgive!” Pope Francis says. Saint Maria Goretti understood this at the age of 11 when she forgave her murderer on her deathbed. Her mercy led her attacker to ask for forgiveness from Goretti’s mother, who, following her daughter’s wishes, gave it. Choose love over hate. That is the simple message of our faith.

Tuesday, July 7

The devil you know is better than the one you don’t. Get to know the evil temptations in your life, such as looking for a scapegoat for your troubles, finding the easy way out, indulging in your desires to an excess, or dismissing the humanity of another. Anyone who has studied the Holocaust, slavery and human trafficking, or right-to-life issues knows that evil actions start with little moral concessions that build into great crimes against humanity. Saint Paul urges Christians to put on the “full armor of God” in the fight against evil.” The sole element of that armor is love.

Wednesday, July 8

“Go to Joseph” is a phrase often associated with Saint Joseph. The actual origin of the phrase, however, stems from Joseph in the book of Genesis. Joseph stored up what was good in times of abundance and distributed it to those in need when famine hit. The invitation to “Go to Joseph” is a reminder that when times are good and spiritual consolation abounds, you should take heed. Take note: The grains of truth gathered today will sustain you when you are hungry. For in times of dryness, these reminders of God’s goodness will carry you through.

Thursday, July 9

“The more you learn to love God,” Henri Nouwen once wrote, “the more you learn to know and to cherish yourself.” Coming to realize this simple fact is the journey of a lifetime. The more you come to know yourself, the more you can see the handiwork of God in your life and your being. This self-knowledge is a gift not only to you but to the world. The more you know, the more you can share. Be yourself, be God’s, and be ready to discover a world richer than you ever could have imagined.

Friday, July 10

It is oddly comforting to know that the Lord promised us that if we follow him, we will not have an easy time of it. He warned his first disciples that trials, disagreements, and even persecutions would be part of life. And so they are. It is often difficult to find one’s way in the midst of dissension. Yet faith calls us to open our hearts and to allow the promised Spirit to guide us when what we are to do seems less than clear. The Spirit will answer if we but ask. In Catholic tradition, prayers to the Holy Spirit are less common than those to the Father and the Son, but no less effective. Take time today to pray: “Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful. Fill my heart.”

Saturday, July 11

Feast of St. Benedict

When Benedict wrote a book of precepts for monks living in community back in the early 500s, he could not have imagined the influence they would have over time. The Rule of Saint Benedict ended up being one of the most important influences on medieval Europe. During a time of barbarian invasions, violent conflict, and wide illiteracy, the Rule embodied the ideals of a constitution, the rule of law, democratic principles, and the dignity of manual labor. Give thanks today for the vision that inspired the Rule and for the monastics who preserved it for posterity during some pretty dark days.

The youth group meets on Sundays from 6pm-8pm in the Fr. James Donohoe Parish Center. All 8th-12th graders are invited! Follow us on instagram, username: stbonyg, join our facebook page 'St. Boniface Martyr Youth Group', or email Youth Minister, Chris, at stbonym@gmail.com
