St. Vincent de Paul Society

In today's Gospel we see how in faith, Jarius asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus then answered his prayer. In prayer we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that trust we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones and all those who are suffering. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting families with food, utility, rent and other bills.

As you place your gift in the Society of St Vincent de Paul Poor Box or envelopes by the main doors of the church, please say a prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

Furniture donations are always welcome, please call 822-3132. If you wish to join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and be a communal part of your parish, call the Fr. James Donohoe Parish Center at 676-0676 for details. Thank you for your generosity!

Stewardship . . . a Way of Life

Thank you for your financial stewardship of $7448 last week. This week there will be a second collection for Peter's Pence. "The Peter's Pence Collection derives its name from an ancient custom. In ninth-century England, King Alfred the Great collected money, a "pence," from landowners as financial support for the Pope. Today, the Peter's Pence Collection supports the Pope's philanthropy by giving the Holy Father the means to provide emergency assistance to those in need because of natural disaster, war, oppression, and disease" (USCCB.org). Thank you!

Take Five for Faith

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: June 28

Illness strikes us all with the realization of our own fragility, our powerlessness to change things. The Gospel of Mark tells the story of a father who desperately asks Jesus to help his daughter who is on the threshold of death. He is an example of both profound trust in Jesus and of how fear can challenge our faith. Your role, like that father, is to bring the sick to Jesus and Jesus to the sick. Consider becoming a minister of the Eucharist to the sick in your parish, or visit fellow parishioners who are homebound—a simple, profound act of compassion that can overcome fear.

Monday, June 29

Solemnity of St. Peter and St. Paul

Today we celebrate two men who at first did not agree about who might be included in the Christian community. The question: Must non-Jewish believers follow the Law of Moses in order to be followers of Christ? Ultimately, Peter was able to persuade the Jerusalem community to accept Paul's Gentile converts with minimal requirements. Peter and Paul, each in a different way, gathered together the one family of Christ. Pray today that Christians who disagree may not seek to throw one another out of the church but rather, by the intercession of these two saints, allow differences to strengthen rather than weaken the community of faith.

Tuesday, June 30

Feast of the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome

Most everyone has heard the story of the Emperor Nero fiddling while Rome burned. Whether it's true or not, there was a great fire that consumed half the city in the year 64, and it's speculated that Nero set it so he could rebuild Rome in his own style. But it was the first Christian martyrs of Rome, Saints Peter and Paul likely among them, who were blamed for it and put to death. What an unlikely place for the church to someday call home. Out of destruction and death, God does amazing things.

Wednesday, July 1

Feast of St. Junípero Serra

Brother Junípero lived in two worlds—that of the Spanish colonizers of the Americas and that of the natives in modern-day California he sought to convert to Christianity. Looking back we can see mixed results. Yes, indigenous peoples learned valuable skills of agriculture and were introduced to the best the Christian tradition has to offer. At the same time diseases brought by the Spanish ravaged them, and they were too often exploited and abused. All of us must make our ways in an ambiguous world and do the best we can to be voices of charity, gentleness, and peace. Respect for the marginalized is a great place to start.

Thursday, July 2

Philosophical theology is a branch of theology that commonly addresses important questions regarding the existence and nature of God and the problem of evil. Classic biblical stories, such as the story of Abraham's sacrifice of Isaac, have kept and will continue to keep philosophical theologians busy for generations to come. Taking a philosophical approach to the problems life poses is often an admired trait, but be careful to balance your head with your heart. That ultimately is the lesson Abraham learned as he tried to understand God's will for him.

Friday, July 3

Feast of St. Thomas

Doubt will always exist alongside faith. Do you ever feel a kinship with the unbelieving Thomas? And what is your attitude toward those who don't believe? Would you remain Thomas' patient friend or would you get into endless arguments? The "new" evangelization, the call to all of us to share in the church's role of proclaiming the faith, reminds us that we fulfill the role of evangelizers by walking with those who struggle, those who do not believe. Ours is not to browbeat or bombard them with clever challenges or Bible quotations. Just listen, share your own faith, and love them. That is what God does.

Saturday, July 4

Founding father John Adams wrote of the day the Declaration of Independence was approved (July 2, as it turns out), "I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forever more." Let us pray today that our nation will live up to the shining ideals and the reverent attitude that the founders tried to embrace.
