St. Vincent de Paul Society

As we begin Advent we are called to "wait" in joyful anticipation for the grace of Christmas to once again bless our lives. Wherever you live in our parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell. Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul poor box will help the poor celebrate the grace of God's love this Christmas.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box located by the stairs near the main doors of the church, please say a pray for those who may have no one to pray for them.

Furniture donations are always welcome; please call 822-3132. If you wish to join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and be a communal part of your parish, please call 676-0676. Thank you!

REJOICE, REJOICE, EMMANUEL SHALL COME TO THEE O ISRAEL!

As most of us know, these are the words to the beautiful Advent Hymn chanted in Christian Churches around the world during the four weeks leading up to the great Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, CHRISTMAS! The haunting and hypnotic melody of this ancient song still hints of its Gregorian chant origin. I remember as a child getting excited when I would hear this hymn sang during Mass because I knew Christmas was fast approaching, yet the big day could not come fast enough! Now as an adult, Christmas and its entire splendor comes too fast! In fact, it comes faster and faster every year. For most Catholics, Advent has become a LOST SEASON. For me, however, Advent is one of my favorite liturgical seasons. The Mass readings contain a joy-filled, hopeful and optimistic tone. It's a season that teaches us to wait; be patient with ourselves and others and to SLOW DOWN. We are reminded to focus on the now, and the nearness of our God!

Although the Hymn O Come O Come Emmanuel is somber in nature, it contains beautiful verses referred to as the Great O Antiphons. Each O Antiphon names Christ by a different biblical title: WISDOM, ADONAI, ROOT OF JESSE, KEY OF DAVID, DAYSPRING OR RADIANT DAWN, KING OF NATIONS AND EMMANUEL (God with Us). Although the tune is somber, and may NOT be indicative of Christmas joy, the lyrics and theology behind it are awesome. It was written during the period of the DARK AGES; a time when civilization had broken down and human kind was becoming increasingly more barbaric. The world was filled with war, ignorance and chaos. Our world today is strikingly similar, unfortunately! Just look at the horrible events that unfolded in Paris, France two weeks ago.

In the hymn we ask not once, but twice that Emmanuel come. We long for Jesus to come and make our world whole. Emmanuel, God with Us! That name sums up what Christmas means for believers. God made Himself a Servant. The omnipotent, omniscient, and infinite God enclosed Himself in a woman's womb for nine months. God, Himself was wrapped in swaddling clothes and place in manger as His bed. Our God made Himself vulnerable. Picture this; God sitting on His mother's lap being nursed and fed, and as he grew up being read to and taught by His mother. Such mysteries can never be fully explained or comprehended, nor should they be! It's the story of God coming to man; God being with us. O Come, O Come, God be with us!

With an ardent and burning desire we must constantly long to meet Jesus in all our daily endeavors, i.e. prayer sacraments, work and play. This simple practice will prepare us to meet Christ in His cosmic return at the end of the ages and behold Him face to face in all His splendor and glory.

Perhaps during Advent we can prepare spiritually for Christmas by mediating and pondering the words of this ancient hymn and then just maybe, our Christmas celebrations will take on a deeper and richer meaning, rather than the commercial and secular atmosphere of buying and giving with the reason for Christmas buried deep down in shopping bags, wrapping paper and mistletoe where Christ remains nothing more than an anonymous stranger to both giver and receiver, alike. MARANATHA, COME LORD JESUS! May you and your families have a blessed and grace filled Advent!

ASR Kind Hearts Program

All Saints Regional Catholic School is a school community with a Kind Heart. This school year, we are encouraging our students to make small acts of kindness to their teachers and classmates. The class with the most “hearts” at the end of the trimester will enjoy a pizza party!

H - Help others
E - Encourage one another
A - Accept differences
R - Respect for others
T - Trust others, have Faith

The third grade has immersed themselves in our Kind Hearts Program. They have received the most hearts in the school for their random acts of kindness for October and November.

Upcoming Events at ASR

Christmas Concert—December 7th

Evening with Santa—December 11th

ASR Day at the Movies—December 18th

STEM in the Classroom

A few weeks ago the 7th grade class went on an exciting field trip to Adventureland for their annual Technology Day. We have taken what we learned at the park and have started to apply it to what we are learning. This trimester, the 7th grade STEM class is working on building their very own rollercoaster using common items like cardboard and tape. Please pray that we win the competition and get a cool prize!

Advent Happenings

Here at Saint Boniface Martyr we will kick off the Advent Season with our Parish Mission. Join us in church for an Evening of Prayer and Reflection on Wednesday, December 2, at 7:30pm, given by Msgr. James M. McDonald, Pastor of St. Aidan, Williston Park. Known for his engaging, informative and humorous personality, Msgr. McDonald, will share a spiritual message for us as we embark upon Advent and ready ourselves for the great Feast of Christmas.

We are looking forward to our Annual Tree Lighting Ceremony and Horse Drawn Carriage event following on Saturday, December 12, with refreshments following in the school gym. That weekend we will also welcome Fr. Richard Kunzman from the Diocese of Camden, NJ. Fr. Kunzman will celebrate the 8am Sunday Mass, and he will preach at all the masses about Cross Catholic Outreach, an organization founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in the United States, and the priests and Religious Sisters working in the Church overseas. We will also display our annual Giving Tree to benefit Madonna Heights. See page 7 for more details . . .

Take Five for Faith

First Sunday of Advent, November 29

Advent is the beginning of the church year, a time of renewal on this journey of faith. These four weeks provide a spiritual reminder that God is with us in all places, all peoples, and all events. God is present even in writing cards, baking cookies, shopping for gifts, and the many customs that help us honor the day of Christ's birth. Don't fight the busyness; enter it. And in doing so, take time, no matter what is on your mind or on your calendar, to see the presence of God in this day.

Monday, November 30

Feast of St. Andrew

It is the apostle Andrew who is credited with introducing his brother, Simon Peter, to Jesus. We can only imagine how the relationship between these men grew and changed through the three years of Jesus' public ministry. On this day, we give thanks for the life of Andrew who faithfully preached the Good News so that many, starting with his brother Peter, might know the works of the Lord. On this second day of Advent, write a note of thanks to someone who has drawn you closer to our Lord.

Tuesday, December 1

World AIDS Day is observed today to raise awareness of the disease, to remember those who have died from it, to help those suffering from it, and to take action in addressing it. Pope Francis urges Catholics to pray on this day that all the sick get access to care. Followers of Christ are called to be compassionate and fight ignorance and discrimination. What's more, there are many organizations that need help in combating the disease, such as Catholic Relief Services, which supports more than 180 HIV programs in 35 countries.

Wednesday, December 2

"We've got some difficult days ahead. But it doesn't matter with me now. Because I've been to the mountaintop," Martin Luther King Jr. said in his last public speech. "I just want to do God's will. And He's allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I've looked over. And I've seen the Promised Land." In scripture, mountains are sacred places; the mountaintop is the epitome of the experiences that show us the glory of God. From that vantage point, everything fades away and we see like God—with a clarity that gives glory and can change the world.

Thursday, December 3

Feast of St. Francis Xavier

When Francis Xavier began rooming with Ignatius Loyola at the University of Paris in 1530, he couldn't have known that less than a century later they would be canonized together (along with Teresa of Avila, Philip Neri, and Isidore the Farmer). Francis also couldn't have known where the love of Christ would take him. From Paris, Rome, and the founding of the Jesuits, to India, Japan, and beyond, Francis Xavier spent his life spreading the Good News he first heard with Ignatius, crossing paths with people from far and wide and witnessing to the love of God that knows no bounds.

Friday, December 4

Feast of St. John Damascene

Iconoclasm is Greek for "breaker of icons." The word has its origins during the Byzantine Empire, when iconoclasts were fiercely trying to ban the use of religious images and icons. Saint John Damascene, a Syrian monk and priest (and later-named Doctor of the church), opposed the iconoclasts. He argued for the veneration, not worship, of sacred images—the distinction being crucial, according to him. The Second Council of Nicaea agreed with him and settled the matter once and for all. Appreciate the rich imagery that helps enliven your faith.

Saturday, December 5

Aside from those who may be able to live off the land, in most modern societies we need money to live. We either have to earn it or have some arrangement that makes it available to us. That's the reality of living in a monetized economy. In Jesus' time there was less reliance on money than now, but it was still an important factor. Jesus wanted his disciples—and that includes us today—to give away freely the gifts that defy monetary value—loving attention, compassion, healing, wisdom. So go about your business, and do it well, but also remember to give away what is truly precious in life. Your reward will be manifold.
