St. Vincent de Paul Society

In the Gospel today Jesus tells his disciples: "Anyone among you who aspires to greatness must serve the rest; whoever wants to rank first among you must serve the needs of all." When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

Please say a prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them. Know that you are serving Christ's poor ones as you deposit your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul's box located by the stairs near the main doors of the church.

Furniture donations are always welcome - please call 822-3132. If you wish to join the St. Vincent de Paul Society and be a communal part of your parish, please call 676-0676. Thank you!

Visit www.usccb.org to have the daily readings emailed to you every morning. You may read and/or listen to the readings and watch a brief video reflection.

PERSONAL WORTH

Recently, when I was waiting to take a metabolic class at the gym, a new member was present and ready to take the class, but before it began the trainer came over, called him by name, and asked him how he was doing. The man seemed surprised and responded by saying, "I didn't think I was that important that you already knew my name!" My trainer responded "everyone is important." I was genuinely impressed by the depth of this young man's maturity (he made it a point to find out from the owner of the gym what his name was) and then to speak some words of affirmation to him, "everyone is important!"

We live in a world where life seems to be unimportant in some people's eyes. Recently, we witnessed the terrible shooting in Oregon at a Community College, where people were gunned down for being in the wrong place at the wrong time. Not long ago, I read a news article on Facebook where a young man was executed by the state of Texas for murdering another man for $8.00. The man who committed the crime was a teenager when it happened. Obviously, it was clearly wrong, and justice demands that the accused pay for his crimes, but what I was shocked to see posted under the article were a number of vile and vicious remarks made about the guilty party, and just how hateful the remarks were about him.

People seem to have no regard for others; even people who appear to be good can sink to low levels of not only decent Christian behavior but human behavior as well. Perhaps this mentality can lessen our self value and worth as well. Unconsciously, we can begin to see ourselves as less than we are. The Judeo-Christian tradition teaches us that we are God's prized jewel in the created order; that we are His most precious and valuable possession. We are special because we are made in God's image and likeness as we read in the Genesis account of Scripture.

Our society teaches us one thing, but our faith, our Church and our God teach us contrary to the nonsense the world hurls at us through countless Facebook posts, news accounts, and other forms of social media. Recently, my trainer posted something very refreshing and affirmative on his page. There was a quote which read "If you find yourself constantly trying to prove your worth to someone, you have already forgotten your value." How true this is! We often forget that God made us special, unique and one of a kind, and thank God, He did! None of us have to prove ourselves to anyone! We have value because we are a child of God. Perhaps we need to remind ourselves who we are, and who we belong to, and St. Paul in his letter to the Corinthians reminds us as well in his words, "See what love the Father has bestowed on us in calling us children of God, for that is who we are."

We are God's children; God loves each human being completely, perfectly and fully. Maybe, just maybe, if everyone took these words to heart, we might not feel the need to constantly win others affections and approval, and in doing so realize just how special we are in God's eyes and those who truly love us.

The youth group meets on Sundays from 6pm-8pm in the Fr. James Donohoe Parish Center. All 8th-12th graders are invited! Follow us on instagram, username: stbonyg, join our facebook page 'St. Boniface Martyr Youth Group', or email Youth Minister, Chris, at stbonym@gmail.com

Parish Registration: We welcome all new members of our parish family. We ask all parishioners to welcome and invite new neighbors and their families to become a part of St. Boniface Martyr Parish. Parish registration (census) forms available by the main doors of the church and parish center. Please return forms to the parish center.

Baptism: Parents wishing to present a child for Baptism should be registered members of St. Boniface Martyr Parish. Parents are required to have a Baptism Preparation Interview and attend a Baptism class. Baptisms are celebrated on the last Sunday of the month. Godparents must be fully initiated members of the Catholic Church (having received the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist), and provide a sponsor certificate. Please call 676-0676 to pre-arrange.

Marriage: Couples wishing to be married should call the parish center before any other arrangements are made. A minimum of six months is needed for marriage preparations.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA): An ongoing process of formation for those interested in becoming Catholic. Call the parish center at 676-0676 for more information.

Take Five for Faith

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time: October 18

The principles of Catholic Social Teaching establish that faithful citizens have a “right and duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.” Pope Benedict echoed this sentiment when he wrote: “To desire the common good and strive towards it, is a requirement of justice and charity . . .” (Caritas Veritate #7). On this Mission Sunday we share our treasure to maintain the work of the church. But we do so with the clear understanding that faithful citizenship also requires us to pay the taxes that support society’s efforts to promote the common good.

Monday, October 19

Feast of St. John de Brébeuf and St. Isaac Jogues

Today we remember martyrs, missionaries to our own continent, patron saints of North America. Isaac Jogues wrote, “My confidence is placed in God who does not need our help for accomplishing his designs. Our single endeavor should be to give ourselves to the work and to be faithful to him, and not to spoil his work by our shortcomings.” For some, accustomed to being in control, getting out of God’s way and allowing God to be God can feel like a martyrdom. Be brave!

Tuesday, October 20

Quite frequently, funeral eulogies provide opportunity for a genuine examination of conscience. As the virtues of the deceased are sincerely extolled, it seems natural to wonder: What in the world will they say about me? How have I loved and how have I failed to love God and neighbor? Burdened by memories of failures aplenty, faults seem glaringly obvious and sinfulness is the source of a deep regret. Is there time to change? Can amends be made? Yes, but we best start today.

Wednesday, October 21

Warnings of God’s coming like a thief in the night aren’t meant to be scary but are more precautionary. Jesus used parables as a means of teaching, but sometimes these stories can be just as much a reality check as a lesson. Be prepared, he tells his disciples. Like a good security system, Jesus wants to make sure we’re living at the ready, ensuring our safety today and for all eternity. As the prophet Micah said, that means acting justly, loving tenderly, and walking humbly with God, so that we might live in peace, knowing we’ll be ready to rejoice, not cower, when God comes calling.

Thursday, October 22

Feast of St. John Paul II

Four years before his death, Saint Pope John Paul II was diagnosed with Parkinson’s disease, a degenerative disorder of the nervous system. The way he courageously shouldered his illness in those last years of his life and bore suffering for so long until death was a powerful witness. Even with all the responsibility of his office, he carried on as best he could. Physical decline is an inescapable part of life and not easy to accept. Follow the model of John Paul II and keep living to the end.

Friday, October 23

Feast of St. John of Capistrano

We live in challenging times, no doubt. But consider what John of Capistrano, growing up in 1400s Italy, had to contend with. One third of the population was wiped out by bubonic plague. Schism shook the church. Emerging nations went to war. Yet Capistrano took it all in stride, confident in the Franciscan mission and ministry to which he was called. Rather than bemoaning the state of affairs, he went about alleviating suffering and making things better wherever he could. Embrace the challenges you face, see them as opportunities rather than obstacles. See if you can leave things a bit better than you found them.

Saturday, October 24

We talk about “glory days” as if we lived them all before we were out of our teens. But there’s glory in the death experience that brings about a new sense of self. There’s glory in being lifted up from devastating times and set on a new path. There’s glory in the wisdom years, when the pieces of life’s puzzle start fitting together. There’s glory in knowing that we’re meant for more than this limited existence, and for that we give glory to God. Pray the Glorious Mysteries with gratitude.
