Reopening Public Worship

DATE: June 6, 2020
 RE: DRVC COVID Update: Reopen Public Worship
 FROM: Sean P. Dolan, Director of Communications

Bishop Barres and the Diocese of Rockville Centre have been in close contact with County Executives Steven Bellone and Laura Curran over the past several weeks. Both County Executives have been tremendously supportive and understanding of our deep desire to return to the celebration of public worship, for which we are grateful.

This past week, Bishop Barres informed our civil officials that the Diocese of Rockville Centre had decided to move forward with a date for reopening public worship with a percentage of our church's capacities, while observing reasonable and proper safety precautions.

On Saturday, June 6, Governor Cuomo announced that Houses of Worship in State Regions that have reached Phase 2 of his reopening plan may begin to host worship in churches at 25 percent of their capacity. Long Island will begin Phase 2 on Wednesday, June 10, 2020.

We are most grateful to Bishop Barres for taking the lead in promoting the right of the faithful to gather for public worship, and we deeply appreciate the support of our Long Island County Executives.

Directives are being distributed to all parishes throughout the Diocese along with supplies, in order to assist them in safely welcoming the faithful back to public Masses.

Excerpted Preliminary Reopening Procedures The Office of the Vicar General: June 6, 2020

Over the past several weeks, we have been in contact with our two county executives, both of whom have been responsive, understanding and very supportive. This past week, the Diocese of Rockville Centre, on our own, communicated Bishop Barres' intention to move ahead with our own plan to open our parishes for public worship in the coming weeks, at a percentage of each church's capacity. Our county executives communicated this plan to Governor Cuomo. In response, earlier today the Governor announced the following: Houses of Worship in that region can open at 25% of capacity.

Beginning Wednesday, June 10, 2020, you may host all public liturgies and Sacraments (Mass, weddings, funerals, baptisms, etc.) in churches / indoor facilities with 25% of your building capacity in attendance.

The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass remains in effect indefinitely. Those who are sick or vulnerable due to age or health conditions are strongly encouraged to remain at home and view the Mass on television or online.

Families and those who traveled to the church together may sit together. All others must maintain social distancing (6 feet apart). People should be encouraged to wash their hands and use their own sanitizer.

Masks (or cloth facial coverings) must be worn by all present. Please emphasize to your people that they will not be admitted without one.

Any homemade mask or scarf is sufficient, provided that it covers the nose and mouth.

NOTE: Masks or facial coverings should not be worn by children under two years of age or by anyone with breathing difficulties. However, the priest celebrant will not wear a mask during the celebration of the Holy Mass.

The Sign of Peace continues to be omitted until further notice so as to avoid confusion. Holy Communion is not to be distributed until further notice. These measures are temporary and made in response to extraordinary circumstances.

One's physical presence at the celebration of Holy Mass, even without the reception of Holy Communion, is immeasurably efficacious. To be physically present to our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament, even if we are temporarily unable to physically consume his Most Sacred Body and Precious Blood, is of tremendous benefit to us.

Our plan is to resume distribution of Holy Communion within the next few weeks.

We understand that these are tremendous adjustments. We pray for and encourage a spirit of docility, understanding and patience.

Please Pray

Pray for Us

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

*Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
 Be our protection
 against the wickedness and snares
 of the devil.
 May God rebuke him
 we humbly pray; and do Thou,
 O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
 by the Power of God,
 cast into hell Satan
 and all the evil spirits,
 who prowl through the world
 seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.*

An Act of Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus,
 I believe that You are present
 in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things,
 and I desire to receive You
 into my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment receive You
 sacramentally,
 come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace You
 as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
 Never permit me
 to be separated from You.*

Jesus,

*I adore You
 I fall to my knees
 In awe of Your greatness
 I'm lingering in Your presence
 Bathing in Your light
 Resting in Your love*

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

E pluribus unum

As the United States celebrates flag day, remember that when the Revolutionary War began, no “American” flag existed. Each regiment fought under its own banner. It was another two years before the Second Continental Congress determined that 13 stars and stripes would signify the union of the colonies. An ever-expanding nation required more stars, and then more. It was wisely decided to leave the stripes alone. Holding 50 states together is a challenge in each generation. It takes even more will to hold together a church a billion strong, squatting under banners of preferred views and opinions. “One faith, one Lord, one Baptism” remains our call to unity.

“The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ?”

Cheeky faith

There was a time when the rite of Confirmation included a tap on the cheek—symbolic of being struck—by the bishop, who at the same time wished you peace. The custom was knightly in origin. When you are confirmed, you become a “soldier of Christ,” so you must be ready to risk danger for your faith. But the sacrament strengthens you for the spiritual battles of your lifetime, including for times of crisis. Turning the other cheek hardly means being passive in the face of trials, but rather never giving up in the struggle. Offer yourself over and over in the service of good.

“Should anyone press you into service for one mile, go with him for two miles.”

Perfectly clear

The phrase “biblical criticism” doesn’t mean to criticize Sacred Scripture, though Pope Leo XIII seemed to think so when he wrote the 1893 encyclical Providentissimus Deus, which took a dim view of the practice. Rather, it refers to the use of scholarly disciplines—such as literature and history—to uncover the Bible’s deeper meanings. Fortunately, 50 years later, Pope Pius XII penned On the Most Opportune Way to Promote Biblical Studies to encourage what had been discouraged. Thanks to it, we can delve into the word “perfect” in Matthew 5:48 and learn it’s an imperfect translation of the Greek “teleios,” which means to have integrity. May your actions match your words.

“Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

Love leads the way

Doing good is not only what we are called to do as Christians, it is also a benefit to all human beings.

Evolutionary studies show that cooperative behavior has long-term benefits for human beings; whereas selfish behavior is a short-term win. In these difficult days, let love be your guide, your inner voice, and your consolation. Doing good is indeed its own reward. “Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them.”

Lead on

A small change in translation can be a big deal when the words of the Lord’s Prayer are at stake. After years of consideration, Italian and French bishops embraced a change in the version said at Mass, from “lead us not into temptation” to “do not let us fall into temptation.” The change intends to clarify the fact that God doesn’t lead people toward evil. So, if you are tempted toward sin today, why not ask God to lead you elsewhere?

“This is how you are to pray: ‘Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.’”

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Get to the heart of the matter

Expressions of the meaning of the Sacred Heart of Jesus have come from everywhere—from saints and theologians to singers and tattoo artists—each trying to give shape to the meaning of the unconditional love of Jesus the Christ. The Sacred Heart reminds us to allow ourselves to experience Jesus’ great love for us, to dwell in Jesus’ way of being in and for the world. Use your imagination to place yourself within Jesus’ heart, within love. How does this shift your view of the joys and challenges of the day? “Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God.”

MEMORIAL OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

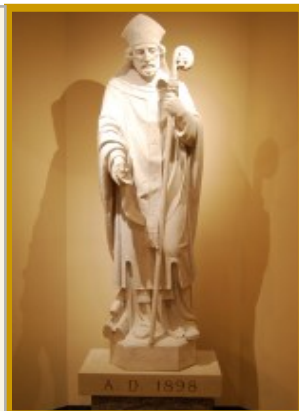

What have we done?

During the coronavirus pandemic, some have asked why God would “do this” to us or what we have done to “deserve this punishment.” A similar question was asked of Jesus in the story of the man born blind. Jesus replied that it was nothing the man did and neither was it some form of punishment. Think of the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose Immaculate Heart is the expression of her sinlessness. She did nothing wrong yet she suffered mightily. Even her Immaculate Heart is shown encircled with thorns and pierced with a sword. Many have suffered in this season of sickness and loss, through no fault of their own. Pray for those whose hearts are heavy with grief. “His mother kept all these things in her heart.”

⁶ Father's Day Novena of Masses

On June 21 we remember all of our fathers, both living and deceased. Don't forget to enroll your fathers in the Father's Day Novena of Masses.

To have your loved ones included in the novena, listed in the bulletin and announced at 10:30am Mass on June 21, you may mail or deliver your Father's Day envelope to the parish office, use Faith Direct at faith.direct/NY820 and make a one time donation, or call the Parish Office, 516-676-0676, ext. 0. St. Boniface Blessings

If someone you know is feeling disconnected from St. Boniface Martyr Parish Church, please call the Parish Office at 516-676-0676, to arrange for a priest to visit. The priests come to the front lawn or porch and bless people while wearing masks and social distancing.

Important Announcement

After much prayer and deliberation, it has been decided that our Parish will not be hosting or participating in any of the public social gatherings we are usually involved in. These include the St. Boniface Fall Yard Sale, the Sea Cliff Mini-Mart and all such similar activities. We feel this is in the best interest of our parish and the health and safety of the wider community. Thank you for your understanding and support.

"To err is human, to forgive, divine, and well, I've done my part."
