Faith of Our Fathers

1. Faith of our fa - thers! liv - ing still In spite of dun - geon,
 2. Faith of our fa - thers! we_ will strive To win all na - tions
 3. Faith of our fa - thers! we_ will love Both friend and foe in all_ our strife, And preach thee, too,_ as love_ knows how

 When-e'er we hear that glo - rious word! Faith of our fa - thers,
 We all shall then be tru - ly free:
 By kind-ly words and vir - tuous life:
 ho - ly faith! We will be true to thee till death.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 69:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

For your sake I bear insult,
 and shame covers my face.
 I have become an outcast to my brothers,
 a stranger to my children,
 Because zeal for your house consumes me,
 and the insults of those who blaspheme you fall upon me.

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

I pray to you, O LORD,
 for the time of your favor, O God!

In your great kindness answer me
 with your constant help.

Answer me, O LORD, for bounteous is your kindness; in your great mercy turn toward me.

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

"See, you lowly ones, and be glad;
 you who seek God, may your hearts revive!
 For the LORD hears the poor,
 and his own who are in bonds he spurns not.
 Let the heavens and the earth praise him,
 the seas and whatever moves in them!"

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

of the devil.*

*May God rebuke him

Amen.*

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The true measure of love. How do we know we're loved? It's more than a matter of hearing the words or seeing them written in a card. Love has something to do with fidelity: showing up, being there, not leaving when the stampede is moving in the direction of the door. Love makes sacrifices, shares times of want along with seasons of plenty. Love generously supports and honestly challenges. Love lets go when the time is right. On this Father's Day, celebrate those who have embraced the vocation to show a father's love and helped you recognize your true worth. "So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows."

Monday, June 22, 2020

MEMORIAL OF ST. PAULINUS OF NOLA

Simplicity is next to Godliness. Paulinus of Nola had it all—a successful career and wealth that enabled him to retire early—and then he didn't. After his only child died as a baby, he and his wife started shedding their life of leisure that sorrow must have rendered insensible. Today, as the world changes dramatically, and our lives with it, we can relate. Paulinus eventually became a monk and celebrated Christian poet. After his wife died, he was named bishop and ended up being friends with many future saints, including Augustine, Jerome, Ambrose, and Gregory the Great. With God's help, you too can turn your own tragedies into triumph in Christ. "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Tuesday, June 23, 2020

Essential work calls. Today, designated International Widows' Day by the United Nations, is a good day to remember all families that have lost a loved one due to coronavirus—especially families that are most vulnerable, with children or a limited livelihood. As Pope Benedict XVI affirmed in his encyclical Deus Caritas Est, "love for widows and orphans, prisoners, and the sick and needy of every kind is as essential" to the church "as the ministry of the sacraments and preaching of the gospel." How can you be Christ's hands and feet today, to help provide sustenance to hurting families and lessen their suffering? "Do to others whatever you would have them do to you."

Wednesday, June 24, 2020

SOLEMNITY OF NATIVITY OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

Give it away. John the Baptist is considered the opening act for Jesus, the forerunner and the one who prepared people to receive the message of Jesus.

A better spokesperson could not be found. John's noble counsel that we share our extra coat and food with those who need them holds true today, ever more in these difficult times when we have learned the imperative need to care for one another. Head to the closet—what can you give away? "What, then, will this child be?" For surely the hand of the Lord was with him."

Thursday, June 25, 2020

Come quick, compassion. The COVID-19 pandemic leaves deep scars around the world. The words of today's psalm are vividly true: "May your compassion quickly come to us, for we are brought very low." The church teaches that God's compassion is always at hand. Suffering can be excruciating, but God's presence endures. Be a compassionate presence to someone who is hurting. The heart you heal may end up being your own. "Everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock."

Friday, June 26, 2020

Make us clean. Today is International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking. This year's theme of "Health for Justice. Justice for Health" captures the complexity of the problem, including the need for widespread accountability and equal access to treatment. As a society, we recognize "international days" as a way to raise awareness about global problems and celebrate achievements. The bad news: Worldwide, 35 million people now suffer from drug disorders; the good news: Cooperation among nations is becoming more coordinated and sustained. In April 2020, during a month the church dedicated to the "drama of addiction," Pope Francis prayed that "those suffering from addiction may be properly helped and accompanied." It is a prayer worth repeating. "Lord, if you wish, you can make me clean."

Saturday, June 27, 2020

MEMORIAL OF ST. CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA

Mellow sainthood. Fifth-century Saint Cyril of Alexandria began his career as archbishop with intolerant impulses, expelling Jews from the city. But with time he softened his views, and so is remembered instead for opposing the idea that Jesus' humanity was a mere disguise. How compassionate Jesus is toward the centurion in today's gospel, how tenderly he touches the hand of Peter's mother-in-law. Surely he shows the best of being human, nothing is camouflage. In the process of maturing, how have your own hard edges been softened and made compassionate? "He took our infirmities and bore our diseases."
