

And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple - amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward. — Matthew 10:42

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

*Be our protection
against the wickedness
and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the Power of God,
cast into hell Satan
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl through the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.*

An Act of Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You
into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
I cannot receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually
into my heart.
I embrace You
as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me
to be separated from You. Amen.*

Reading 1: One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight. Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?" His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha said, "Call her." When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son."

Psalm: For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Reading 2: Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.

We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: Jesus said to his apostles: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

Prepare the Word

What should we do if we can't go to Mass?

We are reminded of the Fourth Commandment: Keep holy the Lord's Day. Consider it an invitation to choose a devotion and Act of Spiritual Communion that enables you to stay connected to the universal Body of Christ.

You might: "virtually" attend Sunday Mass on TV or online. Most dioceses have a Mass for shut-ins, a term that now applies to many of us. [St. Boniface Martyr Church 10:30am Sunday Mass is live on Facebook: www.facebook.com/StBonifaceMartyr/. Otherwise watch Catholic Faith Network: CFNtv.org, Optimum 29/137, Verizon 296.]

The Paulist Fathers in Rome also have a user-friendly sing-along Mass in English uploaded weekly at YouTube. See stpatricksamericarome.org for the current offerings on their home page.

YG End of year St. BoniFIRE. Let's connect and hang out together (while social distancing). Bring your own chair/blanket to sit on, mask, gloves and bug spray. Text/message Belinda if you are in. See you then! (I will provide the individually and sanitarilly wrapped s'mores ingredients.)

Read and reflect on the Sunday scripture available from the U.S. Bishops' site: usccb.org/bible/readings. 5

Make use of the church's traditional Liturgy of the Hours by downloading the popular breviary app at ibreviary.org.

Make a virtual retreat or other ministry resources. See bustedhalo.com [Paulist Fathers].

Pray five decades of the Rosary or make this the year you finally read your Bible—neither of which requires any technology.

Recommended prayers include an Act of Spiritual Communion [see page 2], Anima Christi and the Prayer of Pope Francis During the Pandemic [below] when unable to participate in the Mass. Feel free to adapt them for personal or family needs!

Anima Christi

*Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within thy wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be parted from you.
From the evil Enemy defend me.
In the hour of my death call me.
And bid me come to thee,
that with your saints I may praise thee
for age upon age. Amen.*

Prayer of Pope Francis

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.

You, Salvation of Your People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

- Alice Camille.

Welcome, prophet

Younger generations are quick to tell older ones how wrong they are about everything. But wise elders don't dismiss challenges to their perspective lightly—especially when they have some truth to them. A prophetic word may at times come more naturally to the young: free of the accretions of habit and with no comfortable niche to defend (yet). Take time today to talk across the age gap. Hear the words to another generation's songs, consider their protests, withhold instant judgment. Having a conversation partner, as we've learned from the time of isolation, is worth the investment. "Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward."

Monday, June 29

Solemnity of Ss. Peter and Paul

A matching set for all eternity

Saints Peter and Paul are together the patrons of Rome, where both were martyred around the same time. The two men had their differences, but they were central in establishing the Christian faith, which eventually won over the Roman Empire despite fierce opposition from officials. Saint Augustine wrote: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one . . . Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith." Amen. "Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Tuesday, June 30

Memorial of the first Martyrs of the Church of Rome

Holiness involves dying a little each day

Tertullian, one of the first Christian theologians, wrote: "The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church." The church's first martyrs are commemorated a day after the feast of Saints Peter and Paul—who tradition says were also victims of Nero's slaughter, beginning in 64. And martyrs aren't meant to be just a memory but also a model. Look no further than first responders and essential workers to see modern examples of those following the model of self-sacrifice for the sake of others. Offer a sign of gratitude for their service.

Wednesday, July 1

Memorial of St. Junipero Serra

Live and learn

Missionaries in the age of the Iberian conquest of the Americas played a complex role, as protectors of the Indians but also projectors of the empire's power. Junípero Serra shares that mixed legacy—a mission priest who brought the saving power of Jesus but also was part of a colonization project that brought harsh treatment and epidemics. We know a little more about indigenous rights today—and about epidemics too, for that matter. Keep the faith, but mix it with a healthy dose of respect for different traditions. "Seek good and not evil, that you may live."

Thursday, July 2

The healing power of compassion

Jesus healed in ways we consider miraculous, not because he had anything to prove about his power, but because his compassion urged him to alleviate suffering in whatever ways he could. His teaching and his healing went hand in hand: Both were focused on bringing us to wholeness. When he calls the paralytic man his son or child, it displays a mark of the tenderness he feels for all of us. Jesus draws us close in a healing embrace. Accept his healing today. "Courage, child, your sins are forgiven."

Friday, July 3

Feast of St. Thomas, apostle

Beyond all doubt

Thomas may have started out doubting, but once he saw and touched the truth, his faith took him very far indeed. It is said he traveled to the southwest coast of India in the year 52 and spent the last 20 years of his life there planting Christianity. To this day, "Saint Thomas Christians" in India trace their origins back to the apostle. In fact, Thomas is so popular that India has issued a commemorative stamp in his honor! Doubt does not oppose faith, it makes faith possible. "Thomas answered and said to him, 'My Lord and my God!'"

Saturday, July 4

Independence Day

'Tis of thee

It's not all that well known that at its founding, the United States was not a terribly tolerant collection of colonies when it came to religion. Every colony but Pennsylvania had some form of anti-Catholic law at the time of Independence. Thankfully, customs, attitudes, and laws have evolved. But freedom can never be taken for granted, lest it be taken for good! Celebrate your freedom today—as an American and as a Catholic! "The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast."
