St. Michael Prayer & Opening Hymn

Prayer to St. Michael: Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Praise to the Lord

1. Praise to the Lord, the Al-might-y, the king of cre-a-tion!
 2. Praise to the Lord, who shall pros-per our work and de-fend us;
 3. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in us a-dore him!

O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and sal-va-tion!
 Sure-ly his good-ness and mer-cy shall dai-ly at-tend us.
 All that has life and breath come now with prais-es be-fore him!

Come, all who hear: Now to his al-tar draw
 Pon-der a-new what the Al-might-y can Let the "A-men" sound from his peo-ple a-near, Join-ing in glad ad-o-ra-tion!

 do, Who with his love will be-friend us.
 gain, Now as we wor-ship be-fore him!

Prayers & Readings

CONFITEOR: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do; through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, the Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He arose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

THE NICENE CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

READING 1: There is no god besides you who have the care of all, that you need show you have not unjustly condemned. For your might is the source of justice; your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all. For you show your might when the perfection of your power is disbelieved; and in those who know you, you rebuke temerity. But though you are master of might, you judge with clemency, and with much lenience you govern us; for power, whenever you will, attends you. And you taught your people, by these deeds, that those who are just must be kind; and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins.

READING 2: Brothers and sisters: The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will.

PSALM: R. Lord, you are good and forgiving. You, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in kindness to all who call upon you. Harken, O Lord, to my prayer and attend to the sound of my pleading.

R. All the nations you have made shall come and worship you, O Lord, and glorify your name. For you are great, and you do wondrous deeds; you alone are God. R. You, O Lord are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in kindness and fidelity. Turn toward me, and have pity on me; give your strength to your servant. R.

GOSPEL: Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off. When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well. The slaves of the householder came to him and said, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?' He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' His slaves said to him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?' He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters, "First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn."'"

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your generosity!

During the coronavirus lockdown, our Sunday collection averaged $2,500 per week. Since public masses were reinstated, our Sunday collections have greatly increased. Thank you! Many thanks also to those of you who mailed your envelopes and donations, and to those of you enrolled in Faith Direct. Your contributions helped to sustain St. Boniface Church during the pandemic.

Can't come to Church? Did you know that you may participate virtually in the Offertory Collection? Just click on the Faith Direct link in the comments area during the Sunday Facebook mass, or anytime on our Facebook page www.facebook.com/StBonifaceMartyr/ or at www.saintboniface.org. Through Faith Direct you can make your donations automatically from your checking account or credit card. It's secure, simple and convenient for you and your church. You can sign up from your computer or smartphone for a recurring donation, make a one-time gift or request a mass intention.

Don't have a smartphone or computer? Just call Faith Direct at 866-507-8757 toll free from your landline. Someone from Faith Direct will assist you.

Thank you again for your generous donations and for considering using Faith Direct to support your church. May God bless you and your loved ones!

In His Name,

Fr. Kevin Dillon, Pastor

Take Five for Faith

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow a day at a time.

Sixteen Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 19, 2020

We tend to find what we're looking for. First Bishop of Boston John Cheverus, who died this day in 1836, always sought—and brought—friendship. Forced to flee France after his ordination because of the French Revolution, he arrived in the United States to become the trusted pastor of native peoples in Maine. Named Bishop of Boston, he drew resistance from Protestant leaders there, who later wept and protested when Cheverus was called back to France. His priests followed him, laypeople trusted him, poor families relied on him. However you lead, do it with love and friendship.

Monday, July 20: St. Apollinaris

According to tradition, the Syrian Saint Apollinaris was made a bishop of Ravenna, Italy by Saint Peter himself. The miracles and preaching of Apollinaris won over many converts, and the Romans in charge tortured and drove him from his city multiple times, but nothing could stop him from returning to his flock, until he eventually died from his beatings. If you need help persevering in the face of great challenges, look to this early Christian leader and pray for a dose of the strength he found in staying unwaveringly true to his faith and his church.

Tuesday, July 21: St. Lawrence Brindisi

Lawrence of Brindisi, an Italian priest, surrendered everything he had to God's will. His offering consisted not only of the poverty, chastity, and obedience required of his Capuchin religious order, but also his compassion and considerable intellect. Lawrence's fluency in Latin, Hebrew, Greek, German, Bohemian, Spanish, and French meant he was tasked to translate the Bible as well as negotiate peace with other countries. None of these lofty pursuits kept him from showing love to everyone he met. May we all practice what he preached: "God is love and all his operations proceed from love."

Wednesday, July 22: St. Mary Magdalene

Contrary to the mistaken legend that arose later, Mary Magdalene was not a prostitute.

Mary Magdalene was a friend and follower of Jesus who accompanied him during his ministry and remained with him through the agony of his death. Compelled by unbearable grief, she is the first person in all four gospels to witness the empty tomb. In 2016, Pope Francis issued a decree that elevated this day from a memorial to a feast day as he called Mary Magdalene the Apostle to the Apostles. What good news of Jesus can you bring to others today?

Thursday, July 23

In today's gospel Jesus notes that the crowd hears him but doesn't understand. Misunderstanding the message of Jesus was a problem from the beginning, which is why we all can use help in understanding matters of faith, help that is available from the Christian community. Catholics do not isolate scripture alone as the sole basis of faith but also emphasize tradition as essential to our understanding; tradition handed on through the church. You are part of the living Body of Christ that carries on the tradition. Today recall that you help express and form the tradition through your actions—make them good ones!

Friday, July 24: St. Sharbel Makhluf

Legend says healing might be gained by traveling to Lebanon and praying at the tomb of Sharbel Makhlūf (1828-98), a Maronite monk known for his virtue and holiness. Closer to home, there's a mosaic shrine to Saint Sharbel located in New York City's St. Patrick Cathedral. Throughout the world, there are more than 3 million Maronite Christians, an Eastern Catholic Church established in the fifth century and in full communion with Rome. In a world with so much illness, today is a good day to ask Saint Sharbel to lend a healing hand. And we should all do the same.

Saturday, July 25: St. James

The apostle James, along with his brother John, members of Jesus' inner circle, were nicknamed the "sons of thunder" perhaps because of their fiery personalities. At one point in the gospels they asked Jesus if they should call "fire down from heaven" on a village that does not welcome them. Fortunately for the villagers (and for us) Jesus had a different idea of how power should be used—not for vengeance but for healing. Pray that those who wield great power in our own nation and world might take their cue on this point from Jesus rather than James.

Prepare the Word

Weed It and Weep

My wife and I were young and naïve when we bought our first house. We moved into it in early spring, and soon discovered that the woman who owned the house before us had been a wonderful gardener. Each new day of spring seemed to reveal another flower, plant, or shrub coming to life.

Luckily, the neighbors living on either side of our house were patient with us. These elderly couples were themselves great gardeners and, after watching us mishandle the garden chores for a while, began to offer gentle advice and instruction.

My favorite memory is the day Olga leaned over the fence and said with a kind smile, “You know, that tall plant you keep watering every day? That one’s a weed.” And not only was I feeding the weeds, I was also yanking plants that, if they had been left to grow, would have blossomed into brilliant flowers.

Today’s gospel talks about weeds and wheat and how to handle them. We all need spiritual neighbors who have learned a thing or two about the weeds and the wheat and how they crop up in our lives. Listen to the people who know. Cultivate sources of wisdom in your life—the sacraments, good spiritual reading, daily prayer—and pay attention to them. Because life isn’t just a bed of roses. —Tom McGrath

We See What We Believe

Popular wisdom tells us that seeing is believing. But to those of faith, believing is also a way of seeing. What we believe opens our eyes to the same old world in new and life-giving—even life-saving—ways. In fact, I would go so far as to say that how we view reality is more significant than the reality we are viewing. How we interpret events—with hope or cynicism, with compassion or blame—determines the outcome of the events themselves.

Do we see the mustard seed as absurdly insignificant, or do we dream of the day when it will be a tree large enough to shelter birds in its branches? How we look at social problems, or our own relationships, shapes our perspective on what has been done and can be done to heal them. Those who insist that nothing can be done will likely do nothing to solve them. Whereas those who trust that an answer exists are much more likely to find one.

This is not to say that the Kingdom itself is a fantasy that we might dream into being with enough imagination. To say that “believing is seeing” means we acknowledge the role that attitude, intention, and will play in the story of human history. For the one who views life as a web spun around us in which we are hopelessly caught fast, there is not much incentive to struggle toward freedom. Yet human liberty is presupposed by Kingdom reality. The householder who sows good seed is free to do so, as well as the enemy who comes at night to sow weeds. The original sower has many choices to make in his response to this attack, and what he chooses—to leave the sorting for the final harvest—is crucial. If he had chosen retaliation on his enemy, or a premature uprooting, much would have been lost in his own planting. The householder trusts the process; which is to say, God trusts divine justice and judgment. Do we? —Alice Camille
