Reading 1: Zechariah 9:9-10

Thus says the LORD:

Rejoice heartily O daughter Zion, shout for joy,
 O daughter Jerusalem! See, your king shall come to you; a just savior is he, meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass.
 He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; the warrior's bow shall be banished, and he shall proclaim peace to the nations. His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Reading 2: Romans 8:9, 11-13

Brothers and sisters: You are not in the flesh;
 on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.
 If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ
 from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies
 also, through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Consequently, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.
 For if you live according to the flesh, you will die,
 but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds
 of the body, you will live.

Gospel: Matthew 11:25-30

At that time Jesus exclaimed: "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.
 Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.
 All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him." "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.
 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for
 I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

Hands of Christ Award

Jake Sasso: We've seen this young man grow up through the years as an altar server during our masses. As his Eagle Scout project, he renovated the handicap ramp at our Parish Center. He is always there to provide a helping hand, a sense of calm and order to his more junior altar servers (and the priests!) and is always punctual and reliable. When asked what he believes the "hands of Christ" represents - he said that it "requires being conscious of one's actions at all times - following the Holy Spirit....(to) take up our crosses everyday." We have definitely seen him exemplify this with his dedication and service at St. Boniface Martyr Parish. He will be attending Ursinus College in Pennsylvania in the fall with a major in Biology and will be studying pre-medicine. Jake Sasso is one of our recipients for our 2020 Hands of Christ Award.

Sophie Kraupner: The second recipient is always there to roll up her sleeves and get to work on any community service project. She is extremely active in her extracurricular activities and is always available to help with the youth ministry events and missions. She has received the Knights of Columbus Community Service Award and Girl Scout awards among many other accolades and participation in countless initiatives. Most recently, she has been helping our parish outreach collect and organize donations for those that are in need of food during the COVID-19 Epidemic. This is totally in line with how she believes that "God is calling her to feed the hungry." With her help they were able to feed 13 extra families in our community that are struggling during this challenging time and she is currently facilitating more work with donations through the outreach. This young lady will be attending SUNY Oneonta in the fall with a major in Spanish and is dedicated to continuing her community service during college to help serve the underserved. Sophie Kraupner is another recipient of our 2020 Hands of Christ Award.

Luke Martin: Our third and final recipient has created a very special addition to our parish that will be enjoyed for generations to come. He raised initial funds by doing a yard sale at his home to get started on his Eagle Scout project. From there, he asked for donations from local nurseries and businesses and has said that "he felt that God was with him throughout the whole process because what felt difficult at first became easier because so many helped and donated" to complete the garden. He kept the ball rolling and put in a lot of hours himself throughout the process while tending to other responsibilities like school and soccer! Now, people are enjoying our beautiful Rosary Garden! People have found peace and comfort during the quarantine to come and pray in this sacred space. We even had virtual rosary prayer with Fr. Kevin during the month of May. This young man will be attending Colorado State University to study Business Administration, Innovations, and operations management - certainly fitting for him! We hope that when the social distancing is over, when we have the official dedication and blessing of the Rosary Garden, he will be able to attend! Luke Martin is the recipient of our 2020 Hands of Christ Award.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

God's here, in the flesh

A small boy resisted saying good night. His father told him, "Don't worry, I'm in the next room." The child pleaded, "But I need you here." Taking a religious tactic, the father said, "You're not alone; God is always with you." Placing both hands on his father's cheeks and drawing his face level to his own, his son replied: "But God don't have no skin." The child perceived that a faceless, invisible God is not of much help on those dark nights when we need a friend near. But God does have skin in the game. The divine Presence is as close as our concern for each other

Monday, July 6

Memorial of St. Maria Goretti

The power of "I forgive you"

As 11-year-old Maria Goretti lay dying after being stabbed for rebuffing the sexual advances of a 21-year-old man who lived on her farm, she forgave her attacker. That act alone is shocking enough. But her attacker was so affected by her forgiveness that he repented in prison, prayed to her every day, sought the forgiveness of her mother, attended Maria's canonization in 1950, and became a lay brother. Makes it pretty hard for anyone to justify a grudge, much less retribution.

Tuesday, July 7

Wonders never cease

The Seven Modern Wonders of the World were identified on this day in 2007, counterparts to the seven ancient wonders that predate the earthly life of Jesus. Two of these modern monuments—the Colosseum in Rome and Christ the Redeemer statue in Rio de Janeiro—could be the bookends to Christian history. The Colosseum, symbolic of Roman emperors' power, was where early martyrs died while Christianity was outlawed. The colossal Redeemer statue celebrates Christ's ongoing presence in the world. It was used recently to honor pandemic healthcare workers. It proclaims that Christ's love endures now as it did in the time of the Colosseum. Proclaim that love in your own life.

Wednesday, July 8

The cure for what ails us

Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the church. In its pre-Vatican II life, this sacrament was called Extreme Unction and was reserved for the time of death.

Now the church invites all who are seriously sick or experiencing the challenges of advanced age to receive the grace of this sacrament. Celebrated at home, in a church, or in a healthcare facility, often in the presence of loved ones, this sacrament offers those who are sick the peace, strength, and courage of the Lord who himself knew the pain of human suffering. Draw on God's healing powers and encourage others to do so as well. COVID-19 has complicated pastoral visits, especially in medical facilities, so consult with a priest or chaplain about the wisest course of action.

Thursday, July 9

Memorial of St. Augustine Zhao Rong & Companions

Faithful unto death

When Christianity first emerged, members of the early church were often persecuted and even killed. Although the targeting of Christians has waxed and waned over the centuries—depending on the political powers and their attitude toward the faith—Christians continue to suffer at the hands of civil authorities and religious extremists, as did the subjects of today's optional memorial, Augustine Zhao Rong and companions, who were martyred in China over a 300-year period. In honor of these Christian martyrs, take a moment today to learn more about interreligious cooperation, an ongoing effort the Holy Father has championed.

Friday, July 10

Don't get comfortable

As Christians, we not only face the hardships of daily existence, but also the challenges arising from living out a faith that demands justice. When it comes to justice, there is no comfort zone for Christians to sit back and watch. The gospels and the long tradition of Catholic social teaching call us to more. No matter your gender, race, or ethnicity, you must be willing to act: to challenge the racist or sexist joke, to support minority-owned businesses, to see yourself in the "other." Catholic leaders are now especially to stand with people of color who are disproportionately infected with and dying from COVID-19. How are you being called beyond your comfort zone?

Saturday, July 11

Memorial of St. Benedict

A rule to live by

Saint Benedict's wisdom has guided people for centuries. Among the gems of his Rule: The search for security, wealth, and salvation is futile. Instead, treat each hour as a gift. See in each day reasons for joy. Reverence the tools of work like the vessels of the altar. Small, daily brush strokes create the stunning canvas. Important decisions should be made with consultation, gaining the richness of different viewpoints. Learn from relationships not to take oneself too seriously. Know the value of silence. Choose one of these guidelines to follow each day for a week. Then start again!
