Prayers & Readings

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares
of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts
by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

CONFITEOR

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do; through my fault,
through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

READING 1: Isaiah 55:1-3

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; Come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk!
Why spend your money for what is not bread;
your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me,
and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David.

PSALM 145:8-18: R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
and you give them their food in due season;
you open your hand and satisfy
the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

READING 2: Romans 8:35-39

Brothers and sisters: What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril,
or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.
For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things,
nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL: Matthew 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns.
When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd,
his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, "This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them,
"There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." But they said to him,
"Five loaves and two fish are all we have here."
Then he said, "Bring them here to me," and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass.
Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

Prepare the Word

Share the Food

I don't know how she did it. My mom did all the cooking. Her mother, Nona, never cooked. Her sister, Zia Maria, showed up just in time to put on an apron attempting to steal some of the compliments. Everyone knew better. With a family of only sons, mom could rely on precious little help from us other than setting the table and staying out of her way. And all this before the invention of microwave ovens, non-stick pans, and big freezers. Eight courses or more from kitchen to table—all her doing.

Hours later with the meal over, Mom and other women did the dishes while the men napped and we kids played in the yard or up in our bedrooms. When time came for folks to leave, each was given a bag carefully filled amazingly with leftovers from each of the courses, enough for a number of meals over the next few days. And there would still be enough in our refrigerator to get us through the rest of the week as well, which was a good thing because Mom was exhausted to the bone.

The years passed. Nona died, then my father and aunt. My brothers married. At some point my sisters-in-law would help mom by bringing some of the courses. She didn't mind, even when the meals switched to their homes. Mom was happy the tradition would continue. Jesus fed the multitude leaving 12 baskets left over (one for each of the apostles to share), teaching them to continue what he had begun. No one should go hungry. Let us continue the sharing today. - Fr. Dominic Grassi.

PLEASE HELP SUPPORT THE INN

The INN, (the Interfaith Nutrition Network), has been serving the homeless and the poor here on Long Island since 1983. During these difficult times they have made great efforts to continue their work. At the Mary Brennan INN in Hempstead, volunteers prepare and wrap hundreds of meals daily to be given on the "go", as they are not able to serve in the INN dining room under the present conditions. The shelters that house homeless men, women, and children, pose a special challenge for the INN, as distancing is impossible. Staff and volunteers are challenged with sanitizing surfaces daily.

In speaking with Jean Kelly, (the executive director of the INN), there is a great need for the following items: Pampers, new underwear for men, women and children, toothpaste, toilet paper, deodorant, etc.

If you can supply any of these items, please call: Andrew DiSalvo at 516 759 3370. I will make arrangements to pick items up, or you can bring them to my home in Sea Cliff. Thank you and God bless you.

Take Five for Faith

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow a day at a time.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: August 2

August is National Water Quality Month, which may not sound exciting, or even like a religious issue. Yet the sacred character of water is attested from the Creation story, in which God's Spirit hovers over the waters, during the corrective flood in Noah's time, at the Red Sea's freedom crossing, up to the cleansing sign of Baptism. Isaiah issues the divine invitation: Come to the water! But what if that water is risky to drink, as it is for some of our nation's citizens and a sizeable percentage of the world population? Support clean water projects, because water is life.

Monday, August 3

Jesus' mother Mary has many titles—one of them is Our Lady, Star of the Sea. Under this name, she is a protector of seafarers. But Mary is a guiding star for all of us as we seek her son through the storms of life. Saint Bernard of Clairvaux wrote: "If the winds of temptation arise; if you are driven upon the rocks of tribulation look to the star, call on Mary. If you are tossed upon the waves of pride, of ambition, of envy, of rivalry, look to the star, call on Mary." Don't lose sight of her, and you won't lose your way to Christ.

Tuesday, August 4

MEMORIAL OF ST. JOHN VIANNEY, PRIEST

Most male Catholic saints were priests. Some were priests whose great intellect sparked important theological concepts. Others traveled to exotic places to teach about Christ. Still others died as courageous martyrs. But the French saint John Vianney—commonly known as the Curé of Ars—became a saint simply by being an ordinary, but extraordinarily dedicated, parish priest. In French, the word curé means "pastor," or one who is "charged with the care of souls." Vianney cared for thousands of souls who sought spiritual healing in the confessional, where he spent up to 16 hours a day. Seek ordinary ways to be holy today.

Wednesday, August 5

DEDICATION OF THE BASILICA OF ST. MARY MAJOR

How many papal basilicas are there in Rome? St. Peter's gets primary attention, but actually there are three more, each with its own rich history, including St. Paul Outside the Walls and St. John Lateran. The one whose dedication we celebrate today, St. Mary Major (Santa Maria Maggiore) pays homage to Mary our mother and her role in the life of her son.

Pope Sixtus III built this basilica after the Council of Ephesus (431) decreed that Mary is the Mother of God incarnate (Theotokas). The theology is important. Once again, the church makes clear that Jesus was both divine and human. Thus, we believe in the sacredness of human life, and we look to Mary's unflinching love, as God-bearer and first disciple, for inspiration.

Thursday, August 6

FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

The story of Jesus' Transfiguration is important enough to be part of Matthew, Mark, and Luke's gospels, and the Feast of the Transfiguration has been celebrated since the ninth century and officially on the Roman Catholic calendar since the mid-15th century. This emphasis points toward our deep human longing for transcendence, for a glimpse of divine light such as that experienced by Peter, James, and John. What can you do today to open yourself up to Jesus' light? Perhaps pray for the gift of perception, of receptivity to God's presence.

Friday, August 7

MEMORIAL OF ST. CAJETAN, PRIEST

Since the first followers of Jesus, the church has had its struggles, but always, the Holy Spirit keeps the church faithful. Courageous people in every age rise up to lead renewal within the church. In the early 1500s, that person was Cajetan, who felt the pain of the Body of Christ and dedicated himself to doing something about it. With friends, he founded a group of clergy dedicated to trusting in God's providence and claiming no property nor money from the people—the opposite of clergy at the time who were becoming wealthy off the backs of the people. In time, the same church that Cajetan sought to reform recognized him as a saint. Who are the courageous ones in your life who help you stay faithful? Draw strength from them to help institute necessary reforms in our time.

Saturday, August 8

MEMORIAL OF ST. DOMINIC, PRIEST

Listening is the first step in preaching. Into a 13th-century world where few knew basic theology, and wealthy, mediocre preachers traveled with retinues, Dominic brought dramatic change. He encouraged his friars to study the essentials of the faith, preach eloquently, live simply on what they could beg, and leave enclosed monasteries to reach out to people where they saw the need. By putting himself amid people, Dominic found opportunities to brilliantly counter the Albigensian heresy, a popular dualism that saw spirit as good, matter as evil, and denied the Incarnation. Take time to hear what others are saying so that you are sure to respond as Dominic did with the gospel of love that promotes the dignity of all.
