Prayers & Readings

CONFITEOR: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1: Thus says the LORD: Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed. The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, ministering to him, loving the name of the LORD, and becoming his servants—all who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

PSALM. R: O God, let all the nations praise you! May God have pity on us and bless us; may he let his face shine upon us. So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation. R. May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity; the nations on the earth you guide. R. May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you! May God bless us, and may all the ends of the earth fear him! R.

READING 2: Brothers and sisters: I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable. Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

ALLELUIA: R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people. R.

GOSPEL: At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her. Jesus' disciples came and asked him, "Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, "Lord, help me." He said in reply, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

NICENE CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

APOSTLE'S CREED: I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, is only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

From the Bishop

Bringing Christ to Campus

Words of Advice for College Students Striving for Holiness

By Most Rev. John O. Barres, Bishop of Rockville Centre
August 1, 2020

Dear University Students of Long Island:

So much has changed in the world since last semester, and so much will be different on campus this year. Yet one thing remains: the love of Jesus Christ. Whether you are navigating long distance learning or returning to a campus on Long Island or a campus in another part of the country, entering as a transfer student or just beginning, the Holy Spirit calls you to live in this love. The Holy Spirit desires spiritual greatness from you right in the midst of the heavy crosses the world is carrying.

As the year begins, I would like to offer you some short words of advice as you strive for holiness in this unique moment of history. Know that each one of you is daily in my prayers and Masses along with your family and every friend you make on campus.

1. First, be radically faithful to the Sunday Mass. As you plan your schedule, make your presence at Sunday Mass the top priority of your week. Make that decision right now and live it every week of your life until the week of your death. The Mass keeps you anchored, focused and directed on the mind, heart and life of Jesus. Live the rhythm of the Sunday Mass — a rhythm of giving and receiving — in your daily life. Remember with St. Ephrem that when we eat and drink the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, we eat and drink fire and spirit.

2. Pray daily. Carry a small copy of the New Testament everywhere you go or keep it on your phone. Read, meditate, pray, contemplate and live the inspired Word of God. Set aside 15 minutes a day to pray in silence. When you can, enter into a Catholic University Chapel or Catholic Church and pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Listen to Father, Son and Holy Spirit streaming through and illuminating your soul. In a social media addicted world, listen deeply to God in silence and listen deeply to others with the face, eyes, ears, empathy, concentration and compassion of Jesus Christ. Listening daily to God in silence is the best investment to discerning your educational, career and vocational path.

3. Embrace and live the Ten Commandments given to us by God. Reject moral relativism — the belief that there is no right or wrong — and the dysfunctional separation of freedom from truth. Reject moral relativism's mirage-like paths of self-destruction. Realize that true freedom means forming our consciences and actions with the truths of Jesus Christ. Embrace the objective splendor of truth of the Sacred Scriptures, the Creed, the Sacraments, Catholic Moral Teaching, and the teaching on prayer of the Catholic Saints and Mystics. Make frequent use of the sacrament of Penance and experience Christ's mercy and forgiveness consistently. Become a courageous forgiver and instrument of the Divine Mercy of Jesus Christ in the World.

4. Have a deep devotion to the Holy Spirit. Say the prayer, "Come, Holy Spirit!" many times each day. Allow the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit — wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord — to have free rein in your life. Dedicate your educational path, your career path and your vocational path to the Holy Spirit. Have a burning daily desire for Heaven and eternal life. Realize that the people who are most productive in their life on earth are precisely those who have the long view, those who have a burning desire for Heaven. (See the section on Hope in C.S. Lewis's Mere Christianity for more on that thought.) →

6. Sanctify your daily academic work. As you sit down for a three-hour study block of biology, engineering, mathematics, accounting, literature, art history or theatre, begin with a short prayer that offers God your academic concentration, determination and tenacity and transforms the study into prayer and a practice of the presence of God. Be a Renaissance person who is able to integrate step-by-step the history of music, art, cinema and literature as you study engineering, accounting, journalism, education, history or some other liberal arts. A Renaissance person grounded in the truths, mission and mysticism of his or her Catholic faith can cast a wider net of mission and evangelization because of a capacity to engage in a wide range of conversations with a wide range of people.

7. Build authentic friendships. Be known for being a strong, sincere, virtuous and loyal friend, and let friendships lead you to stimulating discussions of Faith. So many university students through the decades have entered the Catholic Church because a Catholic friend took interest in them and gave powerful witness to our Faith. Make the compelling and sincere way you live your Catholic faith a light of Christ to every fellow student, faculty and staff member you meet.

8. Learn to articulate the Catholic Faith by cultivating the art of Catholic Apologetics. This is an orderly and heart-felt approach to explaining what and why we believe. To develop this skill, study the Catechism of the Catholic Church and Catholic apologists like G.K. Chesterton and Bishop Robert Barron, whose writings and YouTube presentations engage contemporary culture and events so effectively. Honing this craft will help you express the reason for the Faith that is within you. St. Peter tells us to be ready to do this always and on campus, having that reason at hand will be a gift to yourself, your Catholic community, and the people the Holy Spirit will place before you.

9. Explore the work of Catholic intellectuals. Search YouTube for talks by professors like Helen Alvaré of George Mason University Law School and Robert George of Princeton University. Both are strong witnesses of living the Faith in society, and both will remind you of the importance of integrating your Faith and your academic discipline. Whatever that discipline is, see how our Catholic Faith intersects it. If you are a physicist, be able to discuss intelligently your Catholic perspective on the relationship between religion and science and how the Catholic Church has been the greatest advocate of ethical scientific development in history. If your focus is literature, understand the contributions of Catholic novelists, poets, playwrights and screenplay writers. Be the Holy Spirit's instrument of casting Fire on the earth! Live and express your Catholic faith charitably and compassionately in the public square.

10. Be an instrument of Catholic social justice, racial justice and harmony, and social change that is grounded in the sanctity of human life, the non-violence expressed in history by the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., your commitment to daily conversion and holiness, and a creative Catholic missionary spirit. Remember the lessons of history that violence and a spirit of destruction set back authentic movements of social change by decades. Carry the Cross of Jesus Christ courageously on behalf of the poor, the marginalized, the ignored, the forgotten, the victims of discrimination and racial injustice.

11. Remember throughout your lives your experience of the traumas and loss of lives in the COVID-19 crisis. We pray for their souls and their families today. Your Catholic faith has given you and your families much strength and direction during these challenging times and you have been inspired by the heroism of so many medical personnel and first responders on the front lines. Their example will be a lifelong memory and inspirational point of reference for you for your entire life. Live their spirit of fortitude, courage, sacrifice and magnanimity.

12. Finally, go to your Mother Mary, Our Lady Queen of Peace, Mother of the Church, Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of Fatima, Our Lady of Guadalupe. Pray decades of the Rosary each day. Take her advice at the Wedding of Cana: "Do whatever my Son Jesus tells you to do." Thank you for your witness to your Catholic faith on your university campus. Be not afraid! Remember with St. Paul that eyes have not seen and ears have not heard what God has prepared for those who love Him. God Bless you! †

Sincerely in Christ,

† John O. Barres
