Prepare the Word

Homily Stories ~ Family Wisdom is a Heavenly Treasure

My grandmother, Molly Harty McNulty, was born October 11, 1878. She married William J. McNulty in 1911 and to that union was born three children, Billy, Margaret Mary, and my mother, Joann. The McNultys and the Hartys were farmers, residing in rural central Illinois. At one point in their history, given the choice of putting in sidewalks or electricity at the farm, Molly chose sidewalks. She was tired of all the mud in the house for she was a homemaker par excellence who set a Sunday table with fine china and linens.

On one particular Sunday, a cousin, Father Russell Wilson, had come down from Chicago for the weekend. After a sumptuous Sunday dinner, Molly and Bill departed to take their guest to the train, leaving Margaret Mary and Aunt Addie to do the dishes. Some details of the story have been lost to history. However, what remains has become family lore for in the midst of drying dishes, Margaret Mary dropped an entire stack of dinner plates, breaking every single one of the china pieces. When Molly arrived home, Margaret Mary ran outside, crying and calling out to her mother. When she finally got out the news that she had broken the china, Molly's response was this: "Oh Margaret Mary, they are only things."

I think Grandmother Molly would be stunned to know that four generations have been formed by those words. My mother said it to me and my five siblings when something was broken or ruined and it forever influenced our view of material goods. My daughters heard those words from me on numerous occasions. Now my grandsons are being introduced to the wisdom of Molly McNulty. For indeed, clothes will become moth eaten, gold and silver will corrode, and wealth will rot away.

Take Five for Faith

Sunday, September 26, 2021

Mother's and Father's Days aren't occasions for parents to toot their own horns about how fabulously they fulfilled the tasks of child-rearing. These dates are for their children to recall and celebrate the special people who made their lives possible. Similarly, today's Priesthood Sunday isn't meant for priests to beat the drum about their vocation. It's an opportunity for the rest of us, who benefit from their fidelity, to thank the men who were present to the first moments of our life in faith and will be there at the last—plus countless moments in between.

Monday, September 27: St. Vincent dePaul

Saint Vincent de Paul is known for founding two religious orders, reforming the church, and serving the poor to such an extent that he is the patron of all works of charity. Many schools and parishes bear his name. But in his lifetime, he was also known for being irritable and quick-tempered—which his friends confirmed and he himself admitted. He said it was only God's grace that made him compassionate, humble, and generous. He's a perfect example that we don't have to be perfect to do saintly work—if we let God soften our hard-heartedness, what great things we might do.

Tuesday, September 28: St. Wenceslaus

Good King Wenceslaus is, of course, best known for his care of the poor and the concern he showed his servant, as immortalized in the famous Christmas carol. Indeed, it was young Wenceslaus' habit to sneak out in the middle of the night and—with his servant assisting—roam the countryside looking for poor or imprisoned people he could anonymously help with his almsgiving. But Wenceslaus and his grandmother, Saint Ludmila, could also be patron saints for grandchildren who are raised in the Catholic Christian faith primarily by their grandparents. Pray for all modern grandparents who assume this role.

Wednesday, Sept. 29: Michael, Gabriel, Raphael

Every minute of the day 20 people in the world leave everything behind to escape war, persecution, or terror. The archangels of the Bible represent God's special care for these migrants. Michael was the guardian of Israel during their captivity in the foreign land of Babylon. Gabriel is the patron saint of diplomats and ambassadors living in foreign countries. Raphael is featured in the Book of Tobit accompanying the story's hero, Tobias, on his journey to a foreign land to find a wife.

The church recognized World Day of Migrants and Refugees last Sunday. Pray that the archangels guide and protect migrants and refugees making perilous journeys everywhere.

Thursday, September 30: St. Jerome

Where would the church be without the word? If you have ever read a verse from the Bible, thank Saint Jerome (347-419). His translation of the Bible from Greek and Hebrew into Latin set the standard until the mid-20th century, paving the way for scholarship that affects our contemporary translations of scripture. His pivotal writing and translating earned him the rare title of "Doctor of the Church." Give a nod to Saint Jerome by reading a favorite scripture passage today.

Friday, October 1: St. Therese of the Child Jesus

Glances are totally underrated. They seem trivial, hurried and fleeting, even stolen! They are the smallest of gestures, barely registering a flick of the eye. It is surprising then that a glance can also be a prayer. Saint Thérèse of Lisieux wrote, "For me, prayer is an aspiration of the heart, it is a simple glance directed to heaven, it is a cry of gratitude and love in the midst of trial as well as joy; finally, it is something." Our prayerful "glances" are significant. They register with God. A glance can communicate everything to God, especially when life leaves us wordless. Pause now for a moment and glance at God.

Saturday, October 2: Guardian Angels

Years back, in perhaps what were more innocent times (or at least appear so to us now), Catholic schoolchildren were encouraged to leave a little space on their chairs for their guardian angels. This charming bit of nostalgia reveals a deeper article of faith. From biblical times to the present, the testimony on angels guiding us has been consistent. Saint Augustine said, "Go where we will, our angels are always with us," while Saint Bernard encouraged Christians to "Make the holy angels your friends . . . we have nothing to fear under the protection of these guardians." Perhaps the larger truth is that although suffering and even tragedy may come our way, if we leave our hearts open, we will not be left alone. God will be at our side. Scoot over a bit!

Mass Streaming News

Thanks to your generosity the Faith Stream Ministry has been able to upgrade our streaming capabilities! With this improvement, we are able to stream more Masses seamlessly and now stream Mass every day! In addition to the 10:30am Sunday mass, the 8am Mass on Mondays through Saturdays are streamed for those unable to attend mass in person. We also stream other special liturgies, and families may arrange for the streaming of weddings and funerals by emailing stbonstreaming@gmail.com.

Facebook Live does have some audio issues which we can not resolve. We have noticed that these audio issues do not occur on the SaintBoniface.org website. Feel free to use that site to avoid the audio issues you may be experiencing on the Facebook platform.
