St. Vincent dePaul

“We Help People”

The St. Vincent dePaul Society follows Christ’s call to serve the needy in the tradition of its founder, Bl. Frederic Ozanam, and its patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

Through our trademark home visits, Vincentians provide financial, material, emotional and spiritual assistance to those struggling with the effects of poverty.

Our principal source of financial support comes from generous parishioners like you, who share Christ’s love of the poor. Please consider joining us at the Friends of the Poor® Walk/Run on September 25 (see our flyer on page 5.) The funds from this event help us to help our neighbors. Each step and every dollar brings hope to families in need.

If you are not able to make it to the Walk, you may still participate by making a donation. Please make your check out to “SVDP at St. Boniface Martyr” with the word “Walk” in the memo area. You may place your check in the St. Vincent de Paul box by the choir loft stairs, drop it off at the Parish Center or mail it to:

The St. Vincent de Paul Society
145 Glen Avenue
Sea Cliff, NY 11579

St. Vincent de Paul envelopes are available by the main doors of the church for your convenience.

Thank you and God bless you!

*I believe in that great love,
that comes, or should come, from our heart,
should start at home: with my family,
my neighbors across the street, those right next door.
And this love should then reach everyone.*

—ST. MOTHER TERESA

*Faith and charity
are the beginning and the end of life:
the beginning is faith and the end is charity.
The two together are God,
and everything else that leads to human perfection is only a consequence of faith and charity.*

Religious Exemptions & Vaccines

DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE STATEMENT ON VACCINE EXEMPTION

Information Regarding Requests for (Catholic) Religious Exemptions from Vaccines:

The Catholic Church does not morally oppose vaccines in and of themselves and has never taught that the use of vaccines is morally wrong.

There is no Catholic moral or religious objection to vaccines in general (as, for example, Jehovah's Witnesses have to receiving a blood transfusion).

Although taking vaccines is morally permitted by the teaching of the Catholic Church, is there an objection to the COVID vaccine in particular?

The answer to this question may be found on the website of the Diocese of Rockville Centre's Office of Human Life, Family and Bioethics (vaccinebioethics.com).

Simply put, a Catholic can morally and licitly receive all the COVID vaccines currently available, although there are differences between them. On moral grounds it is suggested to avoid the Johnson and Johnson vaccine and Astra Zeneca vaccines if another is available.

Questions regarding vaccine exemptions (from a Catholic perspective) have to do with a secular civil liberties question: whether or not the government can require someone to show proof of vaccination to be permitted to do something.

For example, it is well known that in New York State, the following vaccines are required for day care, pre-K, and all school attendance:

Diphtheria and Tetanus toxoid-containing vaccine and Pertussis vaccine (DTaP or Tdap)

Hepatitis B vaccine

Measles, Mumps and Rubella vaccine (MMR)

Polio vaccine

Varicella (Chickenpox) vaccine

Some people are asking the Catholic Church to support a religious exemption from the COVID vaccines. This issue should be properly pursued on civil liberties grounds, or on the grounds of one's "personal" beliefs, but not on the basis of the teachings of the Catholic Church.

The Church cannot say that there is a "Catholic" religious objection to the vaccine when one does not exist.

What do you give to the saint who has everything? Mother Teresa of Calcutta was among the spiritually richest people on the planet throughout her productive life caring for the poor. The date of her death, September 5, was quickly recognized in Hungary as an occasion to be perpetually honored. In 2012, the United Nations declared this date as an International Day of Charity in her memory. As Mother Teresa demonstrated, simple acts of charity reach across divisions and make communities more resilient. Contribute to the healing of society today by charitable giving, locally or globally.

This Labor Day, as we enjoy food at picnics and barbecues, let's remember who harvested this food—many of them Spanish-speaking migrant workers, many of them fellow Catholics. Consider what your parish can do for migrant workers in your area. Perhaps a clothing drive or a fundraiser to buy rosaries and Bibles in Spanish or other languages of a migrant group. Or enlist school kids to write translated notes of welcome and thanks for the hard work migrants do. Charities helped nearly 400,000 migrants, immigrants, and refugees this past year with all kinds of assistance—learn more about their work and how you can pitch in.

Jewish believers celebrate Rosh Hashanah today, marking the birthday of the universe—recalling how God placed Adam and Eve at the center of creation as faithful stewards. For many Christians, it's also Day 7 in the of Creation. When the Catholic Church joined this observance in 2019, Pope Francis wrote: "In the silence of prayer, we can hear the symphony of creation calling us to abandon our self-centeredness in order to feel embraced by the tender love of the Father and to share with joy the gifts we have received." Pray to become a more selfless steward of creation.

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

In 431, bishops at the Council of Ephesus decreed Mary as Theotokos, a Greek word that means "God-bearer"—or, more commonly, "Mother of God." Her birthday was celebrated at the beginning of the year—in Constantinople, the calendar began on September 1—because Mary's birth is also the beginning of our salvation, through her son.

"Be of good cheer," wrote Saint Andrew of Crete, "this is the Feast of the Nativity of the Virgin and of the renewal of the human race!" Honor Mary today by praying the , also known as the "Ode of the Theotokos."

Memorial of St. Peter Claver, priest

Saint Peter Claver (1580-1654) was a Jesuit priest dedicated to baptizing and serving enslaved Africans in Cartagena, Colombia, a major slave-trade port. While Claver was ahead of many of his peers in at least recognizing the humanity of Africans and poured out his life to alleviate the great suffering he encountered, we need to acknowledge that the colonial system that enslaved Africans was allowed to continue unabated for centuries without much church resistance. How can we and our communities of faith challenge the enduring legacy of racism today, inspired by Claver's witness of service and the gospel mandate to love?

Friday, September 10

A 2014 study found that "young people with mentors, especially at-risk youth, have more positive visions of themselves and their futures, and they also achieve more positive outcomes in school, the workplace, and their communities." The value of mentoring is nothing new. Proverbs 22:6 says: "Train the young in the way they should go; even when old, they will not swerve from it." Whether you are teaching a practical or spiritual skill or a new technique or way of thinking, your instruction will have an impact. Take time to be a good mentor for the sake of the next generation and the greater glory of God.

Saturday, September 11

The attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon happened 20 years ago today. We still carry the memory of that awful day, and we continue to remember in our prayers the victims of the attack and their families and loved ones who continue to mourn their great loss. We remember the passengers and crew of the aircraft destroyed in the attack as well as the victims on the ground. We remember especially the brave first responders who ran toward danger rather than away, many of whom gave away their health and lives to save others. And we pray for the terrorists as well, because we believe in the redemptive power of prayer and because hatred and vengeance have no place in our hearts. May all of humanity be redeemed.
