Holiday Pantry Needs

The pandemic has prevented the pantry from collecting food for the upcoming holiday gift baskets distributed to our clients. As a result, we are turning to you for help. You have been generous in the past. We have appreciated your response. We hope we can count on you once again.

Below is a list of holiday items we wish to fill the Thanksgiving and Christmas Baskets:

cranberry sauce	turkey gravy	stuffing
cans of corn	cans of green beans	cans of sweet yams
cans of fruit	instant mashed potatoes	cake icing
small bags of rice	condensed milk	shelf stabilized milk
dinner rolls	salad dressing	pumpkin pie filling canned fruit pie filling	canned soup	1 lb. canned hams

Thank you for your help in providing food to our needy families. Thank you for your great love and care. Thank you for your mercy and grace. Thank you for always supporting us and our mission. Forgive us for when we don't thank you enough for who you are, for all that you do, for all that you've given. We ask God's blessings on you and your families this holiday season.

Eucharistic Exposition, Adoration and Holy Hour

Eucharistic Adoration is the traditional Catholic practice of placing the consecrated host in a vessel, called a Monstrance, for the faithful to look upon and pray to the Lord in peaceful contemplation.

During Holy Hour, periods of silence may be interspersed with communal songs, prayers, or readings from Sacred Scripture.

St. Boniface Martyr parishioners are fortunate to have two opportunities to spend time in Adoration before the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament every week (unless otherwise noted in the Liturgy Schedule on page 2 of our bulletin):

Saturdays 4pm - 4:45pm: Silent Adoration

Wednesdays 2pm - 3pm: Holy Hour

Come and pray with us!

Halloween and All Saints

Halloween is the eve of Hallowmass, better known to modern Christians as All Saints' Day.

Hallowmass celebrates God's harvesting into heaven the faithful of every age, culture and walk of life. It is a day of glorious rejoicing.

Saints are people who, by their joyful service, have extended the love of God to others. The Roman martyrology—the list of the saints officially recognized as such by the church—contains over ten thousand names. And those are only the saints whose names we remember!

All Saints' Day also remembers those holy people whom no one but God any longer knows. The reading for the day from the Book of Revelation describes "a great multitude that no one could count." The abundance of the harvest of souls is perfectly suited to observance in the northern hemisphere in late autumn. That's why in North America All Saints' Day and Halloween are brightened with corn shocks, pumpkins, apples, nuts and other signs of nature's bounty.

The American tradition of Halloween comes from Celtic lands, where the spirits of the dead were thought to roam the earth for one night before winter began. To ward off their fear of the supernatural, people sat around huge bonfires, telling stories and sharing the fruits of the harvest. Children were sent round to beg for fuel for the fire.

Although the practice of "trick-or-treating" has its roots in pre-Christian Celtic tradition, it would be a mistake to write off the practice as devil worship. In Christ, all things have been made new. And so we dress as ghosts and goblins to laugh at the devil, who has lost ultimate power over God's beloved children.

In Mexico, especially in the southern state of Oaxaca, families go and tend the graves of their loved ones at this time of year. In the middle of Halloween night, they have a fiesta with masks, food, sweets (like miniature skulls made of candy) and bunches upon bunches of marigolds—all by the light of candles in the cemetery! Those who have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith, are still members of the family!

God Lights the Darkness

It's Halloween, the day we spoof evil spirits by dressing up like them. We roam around in the dark to show we are not afraid. Regardless of our Halloween rituals, fear still lives in the world. Our faith that nothing can separate us from the love of God is what prepares us to cope with it. Today as you don a costume or give a treat to a trickster, recall that core belief of God's abiding presence.

Mass Streaming News

Thanks to your generosity the Faith Stream Ministry has been able to upgrade our streaming capabilities! With this improvement, we are able to stream more Masses seamlessly and now stream Mass every day! In addition to the 10:30am Sunday mass, the 8am Mass on Mondays through Saturdays are streamed for those unable to attend mass in person. We also stream other special liturgies, and families may arrange for the streaming of weddings and funerals by emailing stbonstreaming@gmail.com.

Facebook Live does have some audio issues which we can not resolve. We have noticed that these audio issues do not occur on the SaintBoniface.org website. Feel free to use that site to avoid the audio issues you may be experiencing on the Facebook platform.
