We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. This we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.*

Lenten Psalm Session March 27

How is your Lenten prayer journey progressing?
Are you carving out quiet time to spend with the Lord? Are you stuck in that pursuit?
Either way, praying the Psalms can help!

In the words of Benedict XVI Pope Emeritus:
"As prayer, the Psalms are manifestations of the soul and of faith, in which everyone can recognize himself and in which there is communicated that experience of special closeness to God."

The Psalms, in their entirety, express the full range of human emotion and connect especially powerfully to us through song. Please join cantor Kathleen Clancy in the church on Sunday, March 27th at 3:30pm, accompanied by Jeff Schneider on guitar and a guest pianist. Come with an open heart and check-in at this midway point of Lent!

Stewardship

"For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

MATTHEW 6:21

The St. Boniface Martyr St. Matthew's Guild is a group of dedicated parishioners who handle the offertory donations collected each weekend with strict confidentiality, and prepare them for deposit.

Thank you for such a quick and generous response to our appeal to expand this ministry! St. Boniface Martyr parishioners are generous, faith-filled and good people. I am proud to announce that we already have four teams of parishioners that will meet once a month as new members of the St. Matthew's Guild.

If you are interested in joining a team or in being an alternate, please contact Fr. Kevin for more information at stbonpastor@gmail.com.

Building a Community of Faith, Hope, and Love

"Christ is alive! He is our hope, and in a wonderful way he brings youth to our world, and everything he touches becomes young, new, full of life.

The very first words, then, that I would like to say to every young Christian are these: Christ is alive and he wants you to be alive! -Pope Francis

Your gifts bring hope for future generations of the Faithful as we continue to develop programs that evangelize our young people.

One such program, Camp Quo Vadis (Latin for "Where are you going?"), has as its core purpose to help young people listen to God's voice, answer questions about future vocations and prepare the way for their leadership in the Church. Campers at Quo Vadis experience faith in an uplifting atmosphere that instills tools for them to become disciples in the Catholic Church. Young women, religious, young priests, seminarians and campers experience a culture of encounter and are challenged to holiness and mission.

"I decided to participate because of the Eucharist. It is the center of my faith and it calls me to do so much that I do. I had never been to a retreat before, so I wanted to experience what that was like. I don't want to make the mistake of having my faith be just a part of my life like music or sports. I want it to guide me through my life and be the reason I do things." – Sean, camper

First Responder/Essential Worker Mass

Over the past two years we have all experienced difficult times that have tested both our human fortitude and even our faith. However, the virtues of faith, hope and love have prevailed throughout the pandemic, as exemplified by the actions of our front line responders and essential workers. In recognition of and gratitude for their dedication, St. Boniface Martyr Church will be honoring these loyal stewards, especially those in our local community, who served us at great personal risk and who continue to serve us today. Please join us as we celebrate these brave men and women on Sunday, April 3rd at 12 noon Mass, which will be offered for all the Police Officers, Fire Fighters, EMT Workers, Active Military, Healthcare Workers and all other first responders and essential workers.
