Faith Direct

Dear Parishioners,

Summer is almost over – have you made the switch to eGiving?

It's a great way to support

St. Boniface Martyr and grow our ministries that share the Good News of God's love. You can sign up from your computer, smartphone or tablet, and set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

Recurring gifts can streamline your stewardship and sustain our parish in the "dog days" of summer and throughout the year. You'll provide consistent support that helps us always be at the ready with programs, services, and ministries for our church families and for those in need throughout the community.

Please sign up today by visiting faith.direct/NY820.
 Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

God Bless You,

Fr. Josef

Congratulations, Fr. Augustine!

“Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my lineage that you have brought me thus far” (2 SAM 7:8).

It is with gratitude to the Most Holy Trinity and the Blessed Virgin Mary that I celebrate the 10th anniversary of my priestly ordination. It is truly ten years of unmerited favor.

It was on August 4th, 2012 (Feast of St. John Mary Vianney - patron of priests) that I was ordained a Catholic priest by Most Rev. Richard E. Pates (Bishop Emeritus of Des Moines diocese, Iowa, U.S.A.). On that day, a mere mortal like me was configured into the person of Christ - “in persona Christi” to represent Christ in the celebration and administration of the Sacraments and to mediate and be a bridge between God and humanity. Hence, the universal church teaches “It is the same priest, Christ Jesus, whose sacred person his minister truly represents. Now the minister, by reason of the sacerdotal consecration which he has received, is truly made like to the high priest and possesses the authority to act in the power and place of the person of Christ himself” (virtute ac persona ipsius Christi, cf CCC1548). What an unmerited favor!

For these ten years God, through the intercession of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, has been so generous and merciful to me - blessing my little efforts with success and protecting me from harm. It suffices to say that I am a living testimony of Divine Mercy. Worthy of note was the ghastly car accident I had on February 22nd, 2017 that ought to have claimed my life. It was a collision between a Toyota Camry (my car) and a heavy duty vehicle; my car damaged badly that one would hardly believe the driver came out alive, but I came out without a single cut or fracture. What an unmerited favor!

Through this miraculous event, I realized more that GOD IS ALL, MAN IS NOTHING (Libermann). I would have been dead and even long buried but God, through the intercession of our Mother of Perpetual Help, out of His infinite mercy, gave me another chance to live. Another chance to fulfill more of His purpose for creating me - to love Him by loving my neighbor, and in a special way as a priest, to win souls for Him in order to merit being with Him perpetually in heaven.

The major purpose of our creation can only be effectively achieved through prayer and charity. To love God, we must be close to God by developing personal relationships with Him. Moreover, to be truly successful and fulfilled in life, we must be in constant communication with God through prayer. This is basically due to our constant need of divine grace for cut off from Him we can do absolutely nothing (Jn 15:5).

These ten years would not have been a huge success without the intercession of our Mother of Perpetual Help, to whom I dedicated my priesthood. In gratitude for her unconditional intercession, I reconsecrate my life and vocation to her Immaculate Heart. To my patron saints, I owe eternal debt of gratitude. To my biological mother and siblings, I am grateful. To the all the worshiping community of St Boniface Martyr especially Fr. Kevin Dillon (immediate past pastor), Fr. Josef Norys (pastor), Fr. Azubuike Igwegbe, the nuns and the entire parish, I say thanks a bunch! May God continue to bless you abundantly and exceedingly beyond your imagination.

Finally, I ask for your prayers especially for the grace of holiness and fidelity to God. May the celebration of the 10th Anniversary of my Priestly Ordination, bring all of us God’s abundant divine favors, through Christ our Lord. Amen!

You are all invited to celebrate with me on August 14, 2022 at 10:30 Mass.

Sunday, August 14, 2022: Civil rights activist and Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient Congressman John Lewis hoped young Americans might get in trouble. "Good trouble, necessary trouble," he specified. Lewis wished that a passion for what's right might compel our young citizens to "find a way to get in the way" of injustice. A young prophet named Jeremiah once got in the way, winding up at the bottom of a well and nearly starving to death for causing trouble for his king.

Monday, August 15: The Assumption of Mary
Given that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was likely in her teens when she gave birth, she was probably only in her late 40s when Jesus died 33 years later. Life expectancy was a lot shorter then, but potentially Mary could have been alive for many years after seeing her son for the last time. One ancient historian wrote that she died 11 years later. It must have been a time of intense longing for her. Whether she died before she was bodily assumed into heaven or was assumed before she died is left open-ended by the church. Either way, it was an extraordinary reunion with the Lord befitting her status. Consider your own reunion with God. Plan ahead!

Tuesday, August 16: Brother Roger Schütz, founder of the Taizé movement, died on this date in 2005. Brother Roger began Taizé in 1940 in the French countryside, envisioning a humble monastic community to respond to the needs of war-torn refugees—but also to welcome followers from all Christian denominations. The simple house he purchased eventually blossomed into a global place of pilgrimage, especially for young people. Taizé is especially known for beautiful chants still used in congregations all over the world. "The Church is a mystery of communion," Brother Roger wrote, where we "can discover an aurora of reconciliation and the practicing of a simple joy." Pray with Taizé through their website.

Wednesday, August 17: On this day in 1887, Marcus Garvey, one of the most influential black activists of his generation, was born in Jamaica. Founder of Universal Negro Improvement Association, a fraternal organization that he grew into an international powerhouse after emigrating to the United States, he is credited with coining the term "Black is beautiful" to encourage racial pride.

Though controversial in many of his views, he is remembered for his advocacy for racial equality and economic justice. Be a voice for equality and justice as you live out your unique Christian mission.

Thursday, August 18

On this day in 1998 the renowned Holocaust scholar Harry James Cargas died. Most of his teaching and writing focused on the Christian response to the Holocaust. What haunted him, he once said, was that "probably every Jew killed in the Holocaust was murdered by a baptized Christian." Cargas could have chosen an easier academic path, but instead he forced Christians to take stock of their complicity. Today's Psalm is a good help for examining our own cooperation with contemporary sin: "A clean heart create for me, O God."

Friday, August 19

Saint John Eudes, a 17th-century priest and mystic, worked tirelessly to spread the gospel message, which he feared was being corrupted by various heresies. For Saint John, Christianity wasn't complicated: "The Christian life is a continuation and completion of the life of Christ in us. We should be so many Christs here on Earth, continuing His life and His works, laboring and suffering in a holy and divine manner in the spirit of Jesus." And just what was Christ's work? Look no further than the two great commandments he gave us: "Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind," and "Love your neighbor as yourself."

Saturday, August 20: Memorial of St. Bernard

In 1130, Pope Honorius II was dying. In anticipation of his death, a group of cardinals agreed on Cardinal Gregory Papareschi as the next pope. Upon Honorius' death, Papareschi was elected Pope Innocent II. But another group of cardinals had another cardinal in mind for the position, Cardinal Pietro Pierleoni, and elected him as Pope Anacletus II. The church then had a pope and an antipope. Question was, which was which? Saint Bernard of Clairvaux threw his considerable weight and hard work behind Pope Innocent, who eventually prevailed, preventing what easily could have spiraled into a schism. Remember this lesson from Bernard: "If you are to do the work of a prophet, what you need is not a sceptre but a hoe."

The Blazing Fire of Faith

Jesus said to his disciples: “I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!” LUKE 12:49

This passage reveals two things to us. First, it reveals Jesus’ intention to “set the earth on fire.” Second, it reveals that He desires “it were already blazing.”

What does it mean when Jesus says that He came to set the world on fire? Fire is a powerful image that offers much insight into the Christian life. First, fire consumes. So it is with Christ. He came to consume us. He came to transform our little lives into blazing fires. This reveals that there is much potential in each one of our lives. We have potential to become something totally new if we allow the spark of grace to ignite our souls.

Fire also has the potential to make a difference. Its heat keeps us warm, its light allows us to see in darkness and its energy produces power in various ways to help us in our daily lives. So it is with grace. God’s grace transforms our cold hearts, leads us through the darkness of life and provides us with all we need to live productive lives.

It’s interesting to note that Jesus did not only say that He came to set the world on fire; rather, He said that He wished it were already blazing. This desire of our Lord is an invitation to move out of a mediocre and lukewarm existence into a life of radical Christian living. We are not called to be partly transformed, or even mostly transformed. No, we are called to become blazing fires of faith, transformed by God to make a true difference in the world!

Reflect, today, upon the fire within your own soul. How brightly is that fire burning? You need to feed that fire on a daily basis, fanning it into flame with complete commitment. Seek to become that blazing fire that the Lord desires of you and you will be amazed at how fully you can become transformed by grace.

Lord, set my heart on fire with the brightness of Your love and mercy. Help me to be open to the complete transformation of life that You desire of me. I give myself to You without reserve, dear Lord. Use me as You will. Jesus, I trust in You.
