MEMORIAL DAY

FIELD OF HONOR

Our parish is making a special effort to recognize our Fallen Military Heroes. We will be planting a Field of Honor in front of our Church the week before Memorial Day. You are invited to participate and help sponsor our endeavor.

For a $10 donation, parishioners can memorialize a 12"x18" flag, or for $50, a 2'x3' flag can be personalized with the name of a particular hero special to your family. You can write a personal sentiment or prayer for your fallen loved one that will be attached to your flag to decorate our lawn with pride and patriotism!

Flags will be available on SATURDAY, MAY 20, after the 4pm Mass, and on SUNDAY, MAY 21 after the 8am and 10:30am Masses. The flags will remain on display through Memorial Day Weekend.

Please email stbonreligioused@gmail.com with questions.

Funds from this event will support our Youth Group.

This WEEK at HOME

Monday, May 22: ETERNALLY BOUND

Jesus prepares his disciples for times when they will be scattered and feel alone. He assures them again that though they may be separated, they will never be abandoned. Their bonds, permanently forged in the Holy Spirit, will bring them peace in the midst of challenges. So it is for us today. We are bound together with an invisible thread in the community of faith.

Tuesday, May 23: REMAIN CLOSE

Jesus affirms God's desire to be close to us in his heartfelt prayer on behalf of his disciples the night before he died. From today through Thursday, we hear this prayer in its entirety in the Gospel readings. Jesus ardently prays that we remember his teachings, stay close to one another, and remain close to God the Father. Sometimes we struggle to believe that God wants this loving relationship with us. Read John 17 in one sitting with this in mind. It is a powerful antidote to doubt.

Wednesday, May 24: FAREWELL

Take note of the parallel scenes between today's reading from Acts and the Gospel reading from John 17. Paul speaks to the community at Ephesus as he departs on his journey to death. Jesus speaks his prayer-filled goodbyes to his disciples on the eve of his arrest. Both Paul and Jesus insist that their strength in resisting the Evil One is rooted in the Holy Spirit. So it is with us to this day. The Holy Spirit serves as our armor and source of unity for the life of the world.

Thursday, May 25: SHOW ME THE PATH OF LIFE

At the heart of today's readings, we pray Psalm 16:11, "You will show me the path of life." This prayer reflects St. Paul's experience throughout his ministry. At every turn he receives the Lord's guidance to show him where to go, what to say, and how to invite new believers to faith. This verse is also at the heart of Jesus' ardent prayer to the Father on behalf of his beloved disciples. Make it the heart of your daily prayer as well.

Friday, May 26: FEED MY LAMBS

The last resurrection appearance in John's Gospel offers a perfect opportunity for the prayer practice called Ignatian contemplation. In your imagination, place yourself on the shore of the Sea of Tiberias with the disciples in their final conversation with Jesus. Notice the details: the sunrise, waves lapping on the shore, salty scent of the sea and caught fish, smoke of the charcoal fire, the disciples crowding close to hear Jesus speak. Jesus has powerful words for us to hear today: I love you. Feed my lambs. Tend my sheep. Follow me.

Saturday, May 27: STAY FOCUSED

John's Gospel ends with Jesus' command to Peter to focus on following him. When Peter looks sideways to ask about a fellow disciple, Jesus replies, "What concern is it of yours?" (John 21:22). God's concern is not rooted in comparing disciple to disciple. It is part of the human condition to get distracted by what others are doing and to measure ourselves against our perceptions of others. Jesus' final words strongly counteract that temptation—stay focused!

Holy Family Corner

This is a space in the vestibule for our young families to come and collect books to bring back to their pews to keep the kiddoes engaged during Mass. You may spend a few minutes here with your child to “cool down”, do a coloring page or read a book.

Please do not bring crayons back into the church or pews. Your children should never be left here unattended.

We want you to be comfortable back here, but please remember, voices carry.
