St. Boniface Martyr Parish History

In the fall of 1999, all of the All Saints Regional grades were located on St. Patrick's parish property, allowing for total technological integration of all classrooms, leading the school into the 21st Century. The school was supported by each of the five parishes and the school board was comprised of each parish's pastor and representatives appointed by that pastor.

The decision to regionalize the schools and close the St. Boniface School building made for a very painful time in the parish, especially for the parents and children who attended. Since then however, space made available by the closing of the building has been put to good use. For much of the 1990's, the third floor of the school had been rented to St. Christopher Otilie Home, and during that time the parish offices were moved to the lower level.

Update, 2017: Since about 2002, AHRC has leased and renovated the lowest level of the building, where they run a private school. The three classroom levels of the building now provides classroom space for the children who attend the parish's religious education program. The Gym has been renovated and provides both practice and game space for the parish's CYO program and a venue for the parish's social events.

The priests' residence was moved back to the old rectory building, now renovated, and the building directly across the street from the church, which had served as a convent or rectory at various times has also been renovated and now houses the parish offices, a chapel, a youth center and meeting rooms for the parish.

In time, it became clear that Father Torpey considered liturgy a major focus of his ministry. Nowhere was that more evident than at the family liturgy celebrated each Sunday. At ease with children, he fostered liturgy where children were both comfortable and involved.

"If we focus on kids, it creates a focus on the family," said Father Torpey. "If the children know they're loved, it involves the whole family and it helps the parish to celebrate that love in the present; which, in turn, prepares us for the future." This focus attracted many new young families to the parish.

Liturgical music continued to be important, with Jeffrey Schneider as the music director.

To assist the pastor in keeping a clear feel on the pulse of parish finances, in 1993, Father Torpey hired Eileen Krieb to help oversee parish business and finance.

On June 6, 1993, the parish joined in the celebration of Father Torpey's 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood with a mass followed by a lovely garden party.

Focus on the parish's 100th anniversary (1998) began in 1993, with an elegant dinner dance at the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club, where parishioners, Ceil Herbert and Robert Bolger, were honored. It was the first of many Centennial celebrations. Reflecting on the Centennial, Father Torpey praised the work of the previous pastors. He pointed out Father Diederich's work with liturgy and Father Fee's strong sense of Church and how they have provided a foundation to present celebrations, involving some of the same people who worked with these previous pastors.

Holy Family Corner

This is a space in the vestibule for our young families to come and collect books to bring back to their pews to keep the kiddoes engaged during Mass. You may spend a few minutes here with your child to “cool down”, do a coloring page or read a book.

Please do not bring crayons back into the church or pews. Your children should never be left here unattended.

We want you to be comfortable back here, but please remember, voices carry.
