Fast and Abstinence: All Catholics who have reached their fourteenth year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on all the Fridays of Lent. All Catholics between the ages of eighteen and fifty-nine inclusive are also bound to observe the law of fast on Good Friday. This means limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day.

Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. It also helps preserve the sacred shrines. The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

St. Boniface Outreach

Food Pantry: Due to the growing need for more food, we rely on the generosity of our parishioners. We need:

Canned Peas	Boxed Pasta
Chef Boyardee	Instant Potatoes
Peanut Butter & Jelly	Shelf stabilized milk
Personal Hygiene Products	Canned Spinach

Thrift Shop: Visit our Parish Thrift Shop on Saturdays 10am-1pm for bargains on clothing and shoes for the whole family! The housewares dept. has dishes, toys, glassware, pictures and linens. All proceeds benefit our food pantry. We are accepting new/gently used Spring and Summer clothing in infant, children and adult sizes, plus shoes, jewelry, purses and household items.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today is the beginning of the holiest of weeks. Let us pray for the grace to take up our crosses and follow Jesus through death to new life. During Lent, through your gifts, Vincentians were able to bring the mercy of Jesus into the hearts of our neighbors in need.

We meet at 7:30pm the third Wednesdays of the month in St. Boniface School. For more information, call Jovanna Lemonda at 516-676-0676 x124.

Ministry Meetings

Third Sundays: Bereavement Support Group

Parish Center

The National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year initiative, called for by the United States Bishops, to help us deepen our relationship with Jesus. This second year is dedicated to parish-wide small groups.

The resource for our parish small groups is The Chosen, the series about the life of Jesus. The format will be to view one episode each week for five weeks, breaking into small discussion groups after each episode. We believe this will achieve the goal of the Revival, which is "to help you connect with fellow parishioners as you fall deeper in love with our Eucharistic Lord and immerse yourself in the beauty of our faith in an intimate small group setting."

At our pilot program in October, our team members did not initially all know each other. However, the faith sharing was so rich and powerful, we felt a closeness to one another that we would not have experienced otherwise.

We are a pilgrim people on a journey toward the Kingdom of God.
No matter where you are on your journey, you are invited to join us.

Please contact us with any questions and/or if you plan to attend, so we may prepare for you.

This WEEK at HOME

MONDAY, MARCH 25

A Precious Offering

In today's Gospel we see how Mary, Lazarus' sister, takes what may have been her most precious possession and used it to anoint Jesus' feet. We are also given opportunities to give the very best of ourselves. Today, examine whether you have gifts within you that you hold back. Who would benefit from those gifts?

TUESDAY, MARCH 26

Judas Is Humanity

Imagine how Jesus felt knowing that Judas was about to betray him. He surely was troubled but also hurt. Let us also imagine what may have been in the mind and heart of Judas. In Judas we can see all of humanity reflected: the emptiness of greed and envy, the alienation and loneliness of sin. However much we strive to be like Jesus, we will always meet our flaws and shortcomings. In Christ, however, we are strengthened to do good in the world despite our failings. As we approach the celebration of the resurrection and prepare for the renewal of our baptismal promises, resolve to let the new life that Christ gives to well up within you.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27

Second Chances

Much can be learned from Judas' betrayal. Perhaps by examining Judas' actions, we can right our failings. Consider how you can explore and acknowledge what keeps you from God. This week reflect on the times you preferred a path other than God's. How did following another way disturb your relationship with God and others? Trust in God's promise of forgiveness for all who truly repent.

THURSDAY, MARCH 28

Serving Others

Tonight, with the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Sacred Paschal Triduum begins. Humbling himself, Jesus washed and dried the feet of the disciples. Just as he washed their feet, by his resurrection, he washed away our sins. Perhaps you have an elderly parent, neighbor, or relative with impaired movement. How can you humble yourself and be of service to another?

FRIDAY, MARCH 29

Symbol of Love

During the Adoration of the Holy Cross in today's liturgy, the faithful are invited to process to the cross and offer a sign of reverence. Even if you are unable to attend this service, spend time in quiet contemplating Jesus' surrender of himself on the cross. How are you asked to surrender yourself to the crosses in your life?

SATURDAY, MARCH 30

Beacon of Light in the Darkness

Jesus has died and descended into hell but the darkness surrounding us is only temporary. The light of the world will shine brightly once more, and soon enough it will defeat the darkness.
