Divine Mercy

In 1931, Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in a vision. He said to her:

Paint an image according to the pattern you see, with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over [its] enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory (Diary, 47, 48). I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You (327). I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and throughout the world (47).

St. Faustina asked the Lord about the meaning of the rays. She heard:

The two rays denote Blood and Water. The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross. Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of him (299). By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. It is to be a reminder of the demands of My mercy, because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works (742). These words indicate that the Image represents the graces of Divine Mercy poured out upon the world, especially through Baptism and the Eucharist.

Different versions of this image exist, but our Lord made it clear the painting is not what is important, but the message is: God loves us and wants us to know His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others.

This WEEK at HOME

Monday, April 28

Completely Yours

Today the Church observes the optional Memorial of St. Louis Grignion de Montfort, a diocesan priest who served primarily throughout western France. He preached a devotion to Mary and encouraged imitating Mary's continuous acceptance of God's will for her life: his personal motto was totus tuus, or "completely yours." In honor of St. Louis de Montfort, consider how you might say yes to God every day this week. How can you embody totus tuus?

Tuesday, April 29

St. Catherine of Siena

From a young age, Catherine of Siena had visions of Jesus and committed herself to him. After spending time in solitary contemplation, she realized that loving God and serving others went hand in hand. She dedicated herself to serving others, including the imprisoned. Catherine of Siena was the first woman to be published in one of the Italian dialects. To celebrate her today, say a prayer dedicating yourself to loving God, and commit to an act of service.

Wednesday, April 30

St. Pius V

St. Pius V served the sick and impoverished and requested to donate excess money to those in need. As pope, he was tasked with implementing the decrees of the Council of Trent, reforming errors and reaffirming the teachings of the Church. He dedicated much time to establishing seminaries for the proper training of priests and opportunities for the education of the laity. Spend some time learning more about our faith.

Thursday, May 1

St. Joseph the Worker

Today we celebrate St. Joseph, the man who worked as a carpenter. He used his gifts and skills to provide for his family's needs and passed on his trade to Jesus. Spend time reflecting on those who have taught you about your faith and your trade or career. How can you dedicate your skills to participate in the life of God's creation? How does celebrating St. Joseph the Worker honor work, especially work with the hands?

Friday, May 2

St. Athanasius

St. Athanasius spent his life defending the divinity of Jesus, despite being persecuted and exiled for it. He dedicated himself to the service of the Church, which included writings on the establishment of monastic life for the Western Christian world. Today, say a prayer in gratitude for the ability to practice your faith.

Saturday, May 3

Saints Philip and James

Today, we celebrate Sts. Philip and James, though we know more about Philip. He was called directly by Jesus to be one of his apostles. He needed time to come to know who Jesus was. This evening, read John 6:1–15. Philip's reply to Jesus in verse 7 shows us his human concern. How have you let your human concerns get in the way of seeing Jesus at work in your life? Ask God for the strength to put aside whatever is keeping you from coming to know Jesus.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Divine Mercy Sunday

The Second Sunday of Easter is also called "Divine Mercy Sunday." When Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina in the Jubilee Year of 2000, he added the title to this day.

In visions, Faustina heard Jesus request that the image of Divine Mercy be venerated on the Sunday after Easter, a day John Paul lovingly chose for Faustina's canonization.

Many communities display the image of Divine Mercy on this day. Jesus' penetrating, compassionate gaze reaches out to the viewer. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbols of blood and water—Eucharist and Baptism. Many Catholics confess their sins or pray before the Blessed Sacrament in conjunction with this feast.

A priest may use the prayers from the Votive Mass for Divine Mercy on any day when a stronger feast does not conflict. The Second Sunday of Easter has its own prayers and readings, so the Votive Mass for Divine Mercy is never permitted on that day. Instead, we observe the much older tradition of the octave day of Easter. The Gospel story of the doubting Thomas is heard every year on this day because Jesus appeared to him a week after the Resurrection. The other texts for this Mass refer to the season and to Baptism. This day used to be called Dominica in albis, the Sunday of white garments, because those baptized at the Easter Vigil wore their new vesture to conclude a week of catechesis about the sacraments.

Today the only change to this liturgy is its title: the Second Sunday of Easter, or Divine Mercy Sunday. The mercy of God may be proclaimed in the homily or the Universal Prayer, but especially in the actions of believers, who extend God's mercy to all they meet.

The Sign of the Cross

Optional Opening Prayers

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

(Repeat three times:) O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You!

Our Father

Hail Mary

The Apostles' Creed

Eternal Father Prayer

Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On the 10 Small Beads of Each Decade

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world. Repeat for the remaining decades saying the "Eternal Father" on "Our Father" beads and "For the sake of His sorrowful Passion" on "Hail Mary" beads.

Holy God Holy God Prayer

(Repeat three times:) Holy God Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

(Optional) Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in Whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion — inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.
