Lent 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

It is no coincidence that the global inauguration of our 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope occurred on the Solemnity of the Holy Family. The Jubilee Year of Hope in this 2025 Lenten season runs through the family and fidelity to the splendors of the liberating and objective truths of Christ and the Catholic Church on Marriage and the Family.

Lenten prayer, fasting and almsgiving lead individual family members to Christ's light of conversion and repentance. Conversion and repentance, in turn, open families to a family spirit and daily chemistry animated by the Holy Spirit. Family patterns ensnared in the ruts of sin become family patterns transformed by the grooves of grace, humility, charity and the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. The Jubilee Year of Hope runs through every family experiencing Christ's Cross: grief, tragedy, crisis, tension, alienation and transition.

Pope Francis emphasized: "All of us have received the gift and task of bringing hope wherever hope has been lost, lives broken, promises unkept, dreams shattered and hearts overwhelmed by adversity. We are called to bring hope to the weary who have no strength to carry on, the lonely oppressed by the bitterness of failure, and all those who are broken-hearted. To bring hope to the interminable, dreary days of prisoners, to the cold and dismal lodging of the poor, and to all those places desecrated by war and violence. To bring hope there, to sow hope there."<sup>1</sup>

The Holy Family was a refugee family and they are deeply present today to every struggling refugee family in the world to rekindle their hope. The Lenten season of the Jubilee Year of Hope reminds us that while all families are imperfect and have their problems and challenges, all families are called to grow together in holiness and a missionary spirit.

And so we heed the powerful words of St. Paul as they apply to our daily family life: "Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another... Let the peace of Christ control your hearts... Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly." (Colossians 3:12-17)

Our Lady invites us to have a pondering heart as we contemplate God's providential design in the past, present and future of our families, especially as we begin this Lenten season in the Jubilee Year of Hope. In unity with the Holy Family, our own families are called to transform the world and history with Christ's love and the mission of mercy of the Church which He Himself founded.

In the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope, the Church presents us with the canonizations of soon-to-be Saint Carlo Acutis (1991-2006), and Saint Piergiorgio Frassati (1900-1924). As children, teenagers and young adults, they helped Christ transform their own families with their faith and their holiness as they helped Christ transform the Church and the world to this day. Together, they are asking every young Catholic to do the same in their time, in their place and in their own family.

The 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope is a time for us and our extended families to east the nets of Eucharistic charity throughout Long Island, understanding that the Eucharist is a "Fountain of Charity" -- a Fountain of the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, a Fountain of the Gospel of Life and a Fountain of every dimension of Catholic Social Justice teaching.

As the Successor of the Apostles on Long Island, I want to thank every Catholic family on Long Island and beyond for being Lights of Christ's Hope and Lights of Catholic evangelization to the world.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

This WEEK at HOME

Monday, March 10

Lord, When Did I Serve You?

Almsgiving during Lent is often solely thought of as donating money to those who are impoverished. This is a partial understanding of almsgiving; during Lent, we are also called to give of our time, performing acts of charity and serving others. Today, set aside time to pray with the Gospel. Contemplate how you might feed the hungry, clothe the naked, care for the ill, or visit the imprisoned. Commit to an act of service, and schedule a time to serve this week.

Tuesday, March 11

Do Not Babble

Jesus warns the disciples not to babble when they pray. Today, spend time in silence, just you and God. Begin by praying the Our Father. It may be easy to breeze past this prayer we hear often, so spend time sitting with the words. What stands out to you? Share this in conversation with God. End your prayer with a phrase of gratitude.

Wednesday, March 12

A Clean Heart

Though we are part of a different generation than the crowd gathered around Jesus in today's Gospel, much evil is still in our generation. Consider how you might repent and condemn the evil you encounter. If you are able, make plans to go to confession sometime this week. Pray with today's psalm, focusing on the request to God: "Have mercy on me, O God, in your goodness; / in the greatness of your compassion, wipe out my offense. / Thoroughly wash me from my guilt and of my sin cleanse me. / A clean heart create for me, O God, / and a steadfast spirit renew within me."

Thursday, March 13

Come to Help

In today's first reading, we hear Esther cry out to the Lord for help. The psalmist praised the Lord, for he answers our prayers. Today, instead of lifting up your petitions to God, shift your attention to the needs of others. Who is crying out in anguish in your community? How can you work with the Lord to answer their call for help?

Friday, March 14

Be Reconciled

Jesus reminds his disciples that reconciliation is crucial to living out our faith. In today's first reading, the prophet Ezekiel calls us to reflect: "Is it my [the Lord's] way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair?" Today, reflect on a relationship you have with someone you may have hurt. Write an apology down. Bring your reflection to confession, the person to whom you are apologizing, or both.

Saturday, March 15

Love Your Enemy

It is easy to love those who love us. Today, we hear Jesus challenge his disciples to turn to those who persecute them and love them. As Christians, we are called to do the same—even when it is difficult to do so, we are called to love others. If you are able, go to daily Mass today. Spend time praying for someone who has hurt you. Ask God for the strength to let go of your hurt and for the grace to love even those who have hurt us.

Offering the Fruits of Our Labor

Very few people pay their taxes willingly. We try to find ways around paying income tax. We often contribute to charities, not just because we will feel good about supporting their cause, but because our gift is tax deductible. Some people give only to save.

Imagine a different kind of society. Imagine a place where people know their taxes provide good roads, good schools, a fire department, and a recycling service. Imagine people believing so strongly in these goals that they gladly pay their taxes and even contribute additional funds. Imagine that as they pay taxes each year, each person makes a statement renewing citizenship, professing a belief in the community's goals and reverence for its past. In such a society, individuals would care more for the community than for themselves.

In the Old Testament, Moses instructed the people to perform this kind of action. They prepared a basket of their first fruits and brought it to their religious leader.

There they made a statement of faith, beginning with, "My father was a wandering Aramean." They recounted the history of God's interventions in the lives of their ancestors. They acknowledged their dependence on the faith of their parents and on the goodness of God. Consequently, they brought their gift in gratitude.

Did everyone really do what Moses asked? If they were like us, probably not. But just imagine. Imagine if we did this as a society. Or as a church.

Heart and Mouth

On the First Sunday of Lent the catechumens of the church gather at the cathedral for the rite of election. Their godparents testify that the catechumens have prepared for Baptism, and the bishop announces that the church chooses them ("elects" them) for the Easter sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. The catechumens set an example of faith at the beginning of Lent. Throughout this season we all rely in faith on the forgiveness of Christ. He who chose us will forgive us and redirect our steps. All it takes from us is faith.

Paul's Letter to the Romans says, "If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." The belief we hold in our hearts rises up to our lips. In what we do and say, we demonstrate to all around us what we believe: that Jesus is Lord.

The catechumens will make that belief explicit at the Easter Vigil. Three times they will be asked, "Do you believe?" And three times they will answer, "I do." Then all of us will be asked the same—three times, "Do you believe?" And three times we will answer, "I do." Between now and then we spend our days in repentance and prayer, anxious for any chance to proclaim with our lips the faith in our hearts: Jesus is Lord.
